UNIVERSAL PROVIDERS. FAMILY DRAPERS.
There is matter we desire to mention to-day—it is to ask Ladies to spare a few moments for a glance at
OUR NEW PLATEGLASS WINDOWS
in George-street, next door but one to Gipps-street. They are a sight in themselves, and as at present filled offer a show worthy of something more than brief contemplation.
SUMMER DRESS MATERIALS
BEAUTIFUL SILKS
fill up two-thirds of the window space, and a most charming and beautiful variety of goods there is. The newest of the new, the choicest of the choice, the quintessence of taste in pattern and style, the most exquisite blending of colours, the acme of quality and the very lowest scale of prices. The
are too nice for description, and a special line of PONGEE,
the other name of which we are not at LIBERTY
to use, offers a chance of being in the height of the fashion for the small outlay of two shillings per yard. The remaining portion of the windows is set out with MOURNING GOODS,
Grenadines, Merinoes, Cashmeres, Delaines, Nun's Veilings, a variety of New Cloths and CRAPES OF BEST QUALITY.
Grenadines are very much worn, and we have specially laid ourselves out to meet the demand. The sale is rapid, and we have more than once during the past few months had to Cable for more, so that the supply might not fail and our customers be disappointed. To Ladies who wear BLACK, from either choice or sad necessity, we can strongly recommend this department as offering many inducements. Full stocks and perfect assortment are something; but, in addition, we offer our goods at those low prices which, in the "hour of woe" especially, and during the not infrequent disarrangement of family finances on such occasions, are very welcome.
Think of all these things at home, "in silence and alone," discuss them in the family council, sift them, criticise them, analyse, dissect, and pull them to pieces. The more the merrier; the greater discussion the more light. There is but one end to it all, and that—

LAW REPORT.

SUPREME COURT.—MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 24.

No. 1 Jury Court.—(Before his Honor Mr. Justice INNES and a jury of four.)

SMITHERS V. COGHLAN (PART HEARD).

When this action was called it was announced that a settlement had been arrived at, plaintiff consenting to pay £26, in addition to the £24 paid into court, and the costs of the action.

In Chambers.—(Before his Honor Mr. Justice FOSTER.)

LASSETTER AND OTHERS V. LLOYD.

Mr. C. B. Stephen appeared for plaintiffs, and Mr. O'Connor for the defendant. This was an application on behalf of defendant for an order calling upon plaintiffs to furnish further particulars of their account. The plaintiffs sued defendant to recover the sum of £202 12s. 5d. for goods sold and delivered, and defendant in his affidavit stated that the account originally furnished gave the total amount due as £118 1s. 8d., which defendant was quite willing to pay. Having no particulars of the difference between the two sums, he applied for them, but plaintiffs alleged that they were unable to give them, their books containing the entries having been burned, as it was the firm's practice to destroy old books at certain periods. It appeared that the defendant had had dealings with plaintiffs for a period of 18 years, and the bill furnished was a final statement of account.

The application was refused; costs to be costs in the cause.

CARR V. DAVIES.

In this action, which was brought to recover the sum of £45 for goods sold and delivered, the venue was changed from Sydney to Bourke; costs to be costs in the cause.

PARKER V. FALKINER.

Mr. Want, Q.C., and Mr. O'Connor, instructed by Mr. J. M'Laughlin, appeared on behalf of the defendant, to move for a change of venue from Deniliquin to Sydney. Mr. Pilcher, Q.C., and Mr. Pring, instructed by Messrs. M'Namara and Norton, appeared for the plaintiff, to show cause. The action was brought by Frederick Langloh Parker against Franc Sadlier Falkiner, to recover the sum of £10,000 damages for slander alleged to have been uttered by defendant, concerning the plaintiff, at Boonoke, Deniliquin. The slander charged, according to plaintiff's declaration, was that defendant spoke of him in the following terms:—"It's all very well, Parker bringing charges against me; didn't he feed sheep himself last year; my daughter was staying at Quamong, and knows all about it," meaning thereby that the plaintiff had fraudulently and wickedly competed for prizes in the grass-fed section at the Deniliquin Show with sheep which had been artificially fed, and that he had fraudulently exhibited sheep as grass-fed which to his own knowledge were not grass-fed, but artificially fed. From defendant's affidavit it appeared that for many years past he had been an exhibitor of stud sheep at the Deniliquin Pastoral and Agricultural Society's shows, and during that time he carried off a great many prizes for sheep exhibited in the classes for grass-fed sheep, amongst others, two champion prizes. At the show in July, 1888, although two champion prizes were awarded to him, he did not receive the same, in consequence of a protest entered by plaintiff, and he was disqualified from competition at the society's future shows in consequence of such protest, which was founded on the allegation that the sheep were not grass-fed within the meaning of the society's regulations. It was subsequent to this event that the slanderous words were alleged to have been uttered, and defendant asked for a change of venue, mainly on the ground that his disqualification had caused great excitement throughout the district, and that considerable and unfounded prejudice had been created against him, which still existed, and was likely to prevent a fair trial of the action. He also affirmed that the jurors before whom the case would be tried were nearly all of them members of the Deniliquin Pastoral and Agricultural Association, and some were members of the committee. For these reasons he was desirous of having the venue changed from Deniliquin to Sydney. The affidavit filed by plaintiff was simply a denial that any prejudice existed against defendant which was likely to interfere with a fair trial, and Mr. Pilcher offered on behalf of plaintiff, that if any members of the society were found to be on the list of jurors empanelled they would be asked to stand aside.

His HONOR refused the application. He was not prepared to stigmatise the district by saying that the residents would not try the case fairly. If it was a matter of public feeling such as an election or anything of that kind it might be different. He thought that where party spirit at an election or other political matter ran high such an application had been granted, but he was not aware of its having been granted in any other case. Taking the circumstances in connection with the promise that if there were members of the association on the list of jurors they would be asked to stand aside, he did not think the venue should be changed. He thought, however, that there was some ground for making the application, and therefore the costs must be costs in the cause.

CARNEGI V. HARDING.

Mr. Gibson, instructed by Mr. S. J. Bull, appeared for defendant, and moved for a rule nisi to set aside the verdict of Mr. District Court Judge Dowling in this District Court action. The case, which was one to recover commission upon the sale of an hotel, was heard on the 17th instant, when a verdict was found for plaintiff for £150. It was now sought to set the verdict aside, on the grounds that his Honor ought to have nonsuited the plaintiff, that there was no evidence in law of the sale for cash under the agreement, and that the verdict was against evidence.

Application refused.

In Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction.—(Before his Honor Mr. Justice OWEN, Chief Judge in Equity.)

PROBATES.

Probates were granted in the following estates:—James Rowland, £620; Eller Flower Taylor, £962; Robert Ridge, £1891; Mary Rochester, £1376; William Wallace, £2415; William Threlkeld, £2580; John James Robertson, £680; Elizabeth Matterson, £11,537; Stephen Curnow, £638; Samuel Billingsly Dight, £35,496; Christian Budior, £1266; Elizabeth Barratt, £1352; Sicily Brown, £820; James Upton, £3340; Anton Tange, £65,663; Mary Daly, £1007; Edward William Squires, £778; Selina O'Brien, £2745; Isaac Harvey, £452; Elizabeth Charlton, £150; Anne Hughes, £460, William Noble, £113; Robert Thomas Fisher, £148; Apto Laurentz Hansen, £261; Henry Crowther, £435.

Letters of administration were granted in the following estates:—George Buist, £603; William Maxwell, £1983; William John Waite, £675; August Louis Behrem, £125; Joseph Bonner Killick, £128; Daniel Ryan, £370; Susannah Murphy, £110; John Taylor, £342; George Brown, £263; Matilda Waller, £195.

BANKRUPTCY COURT—MONDAY.

(Before his Honor Mr. Justice DEFFELL.)

MOTION FOR RELEASE.

Re Matthew Smith. This application was adjourned last Thursday. His Honor ordered that bankrupt be released and that all property involved be re-vested in him.

CERTIFICATE APPLICATIONS.

Re James Elliott Mann. This was an adjourned application from August 21st last, under a rider to 10 Vic., No 14. An order was then made for notice to be given to an objecting creditor. This had been complied with, and no opposition was offered to the application. His Honor reserved his decision.

Re John William Keeling. Adjourned from August last. This was an application under a rider to 10 Vic. No. 14. No objections were filed or raised in court, but owing to the grave nature of the bankruptcy, his Honor refused a re-examination of the insolvent regarding certain bills of sale. He ordered that an explanatory affidavit be filed within four days, and that the hearing stand over until Monday next.

Re Samuel Alexander White. An application was made for adjournment for one week, but his Honor ordered bankrupt to hand to the official assignee, within four days, an additional statement of accounts, in accordance with rule 138, and adjourned the application for one week.

Re Henry James Bacon. The applicant did not appear, owing, it was stated, to his having sustained severe injuries by accident. His Honor, in consequence, ordered the application to stand over till Monday, October 22.

Re Mary Jane Gill. Adjourned until October 22nd.

Re James Scobie. This was an original application for discharge. His Honor ordered applicant to file an explanatory affidavit within 14 days, the hearing of the application to stand over until October 29th.

CREDITORS' PETITIONS.

Re Laidley v. Siemann. An application was made for the adjournment of the hearing of this petition for one week. Granted.

Re Michael Simmons v. West. His Honor granted permission to withdraw his petition, and a special order was made giving petitioner liberty to present an amended petition on the same footing as that originally served on the 11th instant.

SEQUESTRATION ORDER.

William Whitehorn, of Plattsburg, tailor. Mr. Lloyd, official assignee.

METROPOLITAN DISTRICT COURT.—MONDAY.

(Before his Honor Judge DOWLING.)

PRECIOUS V. RODD AND ANOTHER (PART HEARD).

In this case the plaintiff, Robert Precious, trading as R. Precious and Co., of Clarence-street, sued the defendants, James Rodd and Edward Gosnell, carrying on business as auctioneers in Wynyard-square, for the sum of £182, as damages for alleged breaches of a contract entered into by the parties, with respect to the disposal or otherwise of certain goods. After hearing the evidence of a number of witnesses, his Honor gave judgment in favour of the plaintiff for £35, with double costs.

WELCH V. RILEY.

This was an action in which the plaintiff, George Clayton Welch, livery stable proprietor, of Enmore, sued George T. Riley, farmer, residing near Moss Vale, for the recovery of the sum of £83 16s. 7d., alleged to be due for goods supplied, and work and labour done in connection with the livery, driving, and sale of certain horses. Mr. Moriarty, instructed by Mr. F. Gannon, appeared for the plaintiff; and Mr. Field, instructed by Mr. C. Bull, was retained by the defendant. A debt of £2 8s. 7½d. was admitted by the defendant, who put in a set-off for the sum of £24 10s. 11d., and with respect to the balance of the claim he entered a plea of non-indebtedness. The transactions that were the subject of the present suit took place it was alleged about two years ago, when the plaintiff and the defendant were in partnership. A verdict for £25 for the plaintiff was returned.

PALMER V. SMALL.

In this action Joseph Palmer, stock and share broker, of Pitt-street, Sydney, sued William Small for the sum of £30, balance of account in respect of certain mining transactions, in which plaintiff bought and sold shares for the defendant in the Rising Sun and the Day Dream Mining Companies. Defendant put in a plea of non-indebtedness. His Honor gave a verdict for plaintiff for the amount claimed.

QUARTER SESSIONS.—MONDAY.

(Before his Honor Mr. District Court Judge DOCKER.)

The sittings of the Metropolitan Court of Quarter Sessions were commenced this morning at the Darlinghurst Courthouse.

Mr. Fitzhardinge appeared on behalf of the Crown.

PLEAS OF GUILTY.

The following prisoners pleaded guilty, and were remanded for sentence:—James John Mortlock, embezzlement; Arthur Riley, stealing; and John Kelly, entering a dwelling with intent to steal.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

Henry Levelle pleaded guilty to an indictment charging him with having attempted to commit suicide, and was sentenced to three days' imprisonment in Darlinghurst gaol.

ALLEGED BREACH OF THE BANKRUPTCY ACT.

William Goward, who had been committed for trial on an indictment, charging him with a breach of the Bankruptcy Act, was remanded to the next sittings of the Central Criminal Court.

LARCENY.

George Pritchard, a young man, was arraigned upon an indictment charging him with having on the 16th August, 1888, at Bondi, stolen one bracelet, one scent bottle, and two ornaments, the property of Nellie Hutton. The evidence showed that on the evening of the date in question the prisoner with others was observed by Miss Hutton leaving her father's house, and she immediately raised an alarm. The prisoner's companions managed to escape, but Pritchard was caught by a civilian and handed over to the police. It was subsequently found that the articles mentioned in the indictment had been stolen, and they were afterwards picked up on the road where the prisoner was captured. The jury found the prisoner guilty, and he was remanded for sentence.

ALLEGED ASSAULT AND ROBBERY.

Thomas Coonan was indicted having, on the 26th May, 1888, at Sydney, assaulted one John Collins, and with having robbed him of a watch. Under a second count in the indictment he was charged with having received the watch well knowing the same to have been stolen. The evidence adduced on behalf of the Crown showed that the complainant, a labourer, living at St. Peters, was walking home shortly before 11 o'clock on the night of the date in question, and when at the corner of Goulburn and Macquarie streets was accosted by a number of persons. He was attacked by them and knocked down, and his watch was taken from him. He subsequently gave information to the police, and on the 1st of August prisoner was arrested at Parramatta and the stolen watch was found in his possession. The prisoner could give no satisfactory account as to how he became possessed of the watch. The jury found the prisoner guilty on the second count, and recommended him to mercy on account of his youth. The prisoner was remanded for sentence.

BREAKING AND ENTERING.

Andrew Jones was arraigned upon an indictment charging him with having, on the 24th July, 1888, at Sydney, feloniously entered the shop of Charles William Harvey, and with having stolen therefrom seven watches, one watch-case, and one brooch. Under a second count in the indictment he was charged with having received the property, well knowing the same to have been stolen. The evidence showed that on the date in question, during the absence of complainant from his shop, the premises were entered and the articles mentioned were stolen. Information with regard to the robbery was given to the police, and one of the watches—a Waterbury—was traced to the possession of the prisoner, who claimed it as his own property. The watch was identified by Mr. Harvey as one which had been left at his shop to be repaired; the watch had been repaired, and the complainant showed to his Honor and the jury certain marks which had been made upon a portion of the workings by himself. The jury found the prisoner guilty, and he was remanded for sentence.

BREAKING AND ENTERING.

Jasper Holder, an elderly man, was charged with having, at Sydney, on the 19th of August, feloniously entered the dwelling-house of John Gormley, and with having stolen therefrom one watch chain, with a greenstone and spade guinea, and also a purse containing £11 4s. Under a second count in the indictment he was charged with having received the property, well knowing the same to have been stolen. The evidence adduced on behalf of the Crown showed that the complainant's premises were robbed on the date mentioned in the indictment; on the night of that date the prisoner was arrested in Argyle-street on some other charge, and on being searched at the police station house-breaking implements were found in his possession, together with the stolen articles and money mentioned in the indictment. The evidence against the prisoner was conclusive. The jury found him guilty, and he was remanded for sentence.

JURORS FINED.

The following jurors were fined 40s. each for non-attendance:—Richard Brooks, cutter, 67, Surry-street, Sydney; James Peel, bookkeeper, 430, Riley-street, Sydney; Charles Cowles, gunsmith, Mossman's Bay; James M'Kenzie, grocer, Thornley-street, Leichhardt.

CASES FOR TUESDAY.

The following cases are down for trial on Tuesday:—Mola Evas, breaking and entering a dwelling and stealing therein; John Henry Bell, larceny (two cases); Charles Henry Playford, larceny and receiving; Patrick Fitzsimmons, larceny from vessel in port; John Smith, inflicting grevious bodily harm; John Donaldson, stealing from the person; Mary Ann Wareham, attempt to commit suicide.

POLICE.

Mr. Benjamin Lee, D.S.M., presided in the Charge Division of the CENTRAL POLICE COURT yesterday. John Callinan, 19, no occupation, for stealing one canary, valued at 20s., the property of Maggie Jones, was sent to gaol for six months, with hard labour. Mary Ann West, 19, no occupation, for having insufficient lawful means of support, was sent to gaol for six months, with hard labour. Dennis Bennett, 53, labourer, for being drunk and disorderly in Elizabeth-street, was fined 10s., or 48 hours; and for using indecent language was ordered to pay 40s., or go to gaol for one month (cumulative). Violet Ottesen, 25, a married woman, for stealing a silk handkerchief, a pair of gloves, a brooch, and 3s. in money, of the value in all of 15s., the property of Eliza Seymour, was sent to gaol for 14 days. John O'Connor, 52, tinsmith, for violently assaulting Sarah O'Connor, his wife, was sent to gaol for one month, with hard labour. Mr. T. K. Abbott disposed of the business in the Petty Debts Court.

Mr. A. M. Fisher, S.M., dealt with the business in the Charge Branch of the WATER POLICE COURT. Richard Rafferty, labourer, was fined 40s., with the option of seven days' imprisonment, for drunkeness and disorderly conduct in George-street. For wilfully damaging a constable's tunic, valued at 36s., he was ordered to pay the value of the article, together with a fine of £5, or to go to gaol for four months. Robert Aarons, a hairdresser, was sent to gaol for seven days for playing at a certain game, to wit, monte, on the Randwick Racecourse. George M'Donnell, bricklayer, for assaulting one Charles Smith was sent to gaol for one month, with hard labour. Christian Hansen, labourer, was fined 20s., with the option of 21 days' imprisonment, for having fraudulently appropriated a syphon. Kate O'Brien was charged with having stolen a bottle of rum, valued at 2s., the property of James M'Evoy. The Bench sentenced her to 21 days' imprisonment, with hard labour. John Field, 35 years of age, was charged with having assaulted a married woman named Mary Wiltshire. The prisoner pleaded guilty to the charge, and was sentenced to two months' imprisonment with hard labour. Mr. G. W. F. Addison, S.M., presided in the Summons Branch of the court. Chun Ling, Sun War Kee, and Daniel Jarman were fined respectively 40s., 40s., and 20s., with 26s. costs, with the alternative of 14 days' imprisonment, for cruelly illtreating a horse.

Mr. Marsh, S.M., disposed of the business of the BALMAIN POLICE COURT. Francis Rowland, a boy 11 years old, convicted of wandering about the streets and having no lawful means of support, was sent on board the Industrial ship Vernon. Mary Jane Rowland, 14, was sent to the Biloela Industrial School. Frank Reynolds, for being drunk and disorderly in Birchgrove-road, was fined 20s., or seven days' imprisonment. William Elliott and William Brown were each fined 10s., with the option of 48 hours' imprisonment.

Messrs. H. Byrnes and F. Beames, Js.P., disposed of the business at the PARRAMATTA POLICE COURT. William Charles Quinn was charged with stealing from the boarding-house of Ellen Stubbs, two silver watches, the property of John Painter, valued at £4 10s. He pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to three months in gaol, hard labour.

WHAT SHALL I DRINK? The Lancet says:—"We have tasted the Montserrat Lime-Fruit Juice, and found it sound and free adulteration. It is a far more wholesome drink than any form of alcohol. Caution.—Beware of imitations. Sold by all storekeepers. Sydney, Jamieson and Co., or Elliott Bros.—[ADVT.]

REMARKABLE DISAPPEARANCE.—Very remarkable disappearance of all dirt from everything by using Hudson's Extract of Soap. Reward.—Purity, health, perfect satisfaction by its regular daily use. For clothes, linen, knives, forks, dishes, saucepans, and all domestic washing.—[ADVT.]

NORTH SHORE UNITED FRIENDLY SOCIETIES.

ANNUAL DEMONSTRATION.

SPEECH BY SIR HENRY PARKES.

The third annual demonstration of the North Shore United Friendly Societies was held yesterday at Clontarf, and took the form of a grand picnic. The several societies formed in procession at St. Leonards reserve early in the morning, and marched via Miller, Mount, Walker, and Blue streets to Blue's Point, where they embarked for Clontarf. Though a couple of showers fell in the afternoon the weather was pleasant, and the programme of sports was carried out with considerable success. The swings were in constant motion, and the dancing pavilion was a busy scene throughout the day. Two brass bands—one in the pavilion and one on the grounds—played selections of popular music, and the large number of people present seemed to enjoy the holiday very much. The proceeds of the day will be handed over to the North Shore Hospital. In the afternoon Sir Henry Parkes and Mr. I. E. Ives, the representatives of the constituency of St. Leonards in Parliament, visited the grounds, and were very cordially received. The chairman of the demonstration committee (Mr. John Thew), on behalf of the committee, presented the following address to the Premier:—"To the Honorable Sir Henry Parkes, G.C.M.G., Premier and Colonial Secretary. Sir,—On behalf of the North Shore United Friendly Societies' Demonstration Committee we have the honour to accord you a hearty welcome to this our third annual picnic. We feel assured that the object of our demonstration, which is to augment the funds of the North Shore Hospital (of which institution you laid the memorial stone), has your heartiest sympathy. Furthermore, we feel confident that when the time arrives for further legislation with respect to friendly societies generally, you will give your valuable assistance and bring your life-long experience to perfect the various organisations of such importance to the masses. In conclusion, we sincerely trust that your name will be linked with our electorate for many years to come. Hoping you will enjoy yourself while here, and thanking you for your patronage and attendance. On behalf of the United Friendly Societies' Demonstration Committee, we have the honour to be, Sir, yours obediently. (Signed) JOHN THEW, Chairman; WM. KEEGAN, Secretary; GEO. ANDERSON, Treasurer. Clontarf, September 24."

To this Sir Henry Parkes replied as follows:—"Gentlemen,—I thank you for your address of welcome, and I am sure the few hours I spend amongst you will be hours of genuine pleasure. I trust I shall never forget the ties that bind me to the labouring masses of my fellow-men. It has been my fortune to partake of the hospitality of kings and princes, but I have never felt happier than when sharing the temperate and simple enjoyments of those who toil for their daily bread. The object of your little festival, to augment the funds of the North Shore Hospital, is beyond all praise. If the opportunity should present itself for me to assist in making the law in relation to friendly societies more effectual and adequate you may count upon any service in my power to give. (Hear, hear.) I can only re-echo the generous sentiment expressed in the wish that my name may be long linked with the electorate of St. Leonards, by assuring you that it is my own cherished desire to end my days as one of your members." (Hear, hear.)

A complimentary address was also presented to Mr. Ives, who, in returning thanks, said he was proud to see that the friendly societies of St. Leonards united themselves together for such a noble object as to aid the North Shore Hospital. This, indeed, was the third occasion on which they had done so. As one of the trustees of the hospital, he thanked them most sincerely for the handsome subscriptions they had made to the funds in the past. So long as he had the privilege of being one of their members in Parliament, he would do all he could to further their interests. (Applause.)

The CHAIRMAN announced that the Premier would now deliver an address. (Applause.)

Sir HENRY PARKES said it was very well for the chairman of the united societies to say that he (Sir Henry Parkes) would now deliver an address—(laughter)—but what was he to address them about? It would not do for him to introduce politics, and he was sure it would not do to introduce philosophy, and he hardly knew what he was to say. This gathering represented the united friendly societies of North Shore, but it represented many other persons besides, though of course the main element was the societies. Now the organisation which represented a friendly society was in itself a very good thing, but he would try to say a few words on the duty and the obligation which rested on everyone to limit the objects of such a society within proper lines. Nearly an age ago a great poet and an equally great philosopher—the great Coleridge said that the English people were in danger of jeopardising their real strength by guilds, societies, and organisations. The subject which he would like to bring under their notice was the danger of merging the individuality of persons in the organisation of any society whatever. Human society would be poor and barren if it were not for the striking individuals that projected themselves in all directions. One man was gifted with one set of peculiar gifts, and another with another distinctly different set, and it was for the advantage, and certainly for the beauty of society, that each individual should play his full part; and these societies, good as they were in themselves, would lose their value if they merged the great and striking individuality of persons in the common organization of the society. Whatever the objects might be, let them be clearly defined, and let the exertions of that society be directed to these objects, and these alone. And above all things, they should not seek to make all men alike. In fact they could not do it. They could not make all men alike, nor all women—(laughter)—nor all children. There would be some with one propensity and some with another. There would be some gifted for one walk of life and others for another and different walk, and it was for the good of all that these highly different attributes should be brought into play without being injured by any attempt to check their forces. He believed nearly all the societies represented there had for their object the relief of the sick, and generally to supply the needs of individuals in times of adversity. All that was good, all that was sound, and deserved sympathy and support; but they should never attempt to go beyond that. Let the individual citizen still thrive in his individual frame, and let him do the best he could in justice to his native faculties and to the country he inhabited. He did not know how he could illustrate what he meant, but he would try. Suppose there were two boys born in neighbouring families in the same street, and one was of a mild, obedient, and abstemious character, and grew up into a quiet citizen, desiring nothing better than to follow out the bent of his own thoughts; while the other was stirred by ambition to do something great, had faculties above those of his fellows, and desired to strike out for himself a course as a great discoverer, or possibly as a great inventor, or to assist in making better laws for his country. It would be folly towards the two boys, it would be a misfortune to the country, if anyone attempted to restrain them and bring them into the same course of life. Let them go on according as nature had fashioned them, and according to the circumstances tending to mould their character. They would be happier and more useful, and society would reap a larger benefit from that being the case. But he must remember that they did not come there to listen to him, but to enjoy themselves. He wished them all not only the enjoyment of the day, but that pure, that domestic happiness, that sense of having done their duty, that sense of fearing no man, which belonged to the citizens of a free country. In the address presented to him there was a wish expressed that his name might continue to be linked with their district. All he could say was that he intended to die a member of the Legislative Assembly. (Hear, hear.) There was no Upper House for him. (Hear, hear.) He was too young for that body, and intended to remain too young for them. And so long as they felt disposed to return him as a free unfettered representative so long they might rely upon receiving his free and unfettered service. (Hear, hear.) But the bond between them must be of that character. He could not swerve from the straight line he had marked out for himself even to win the votes of St. Leonards, and he should think less of the electors of that constituency if he did not believe they wanted beyond all things intelligence and independence. He offered them good wishes. (Loud applause.)

Mr. THEW proposed a vote of thanks to Sir Henry Parkes and Mr. Ives, which was carried by acclamation.

SPORTING INTELLIGENCE.

THE TURF.

The second day of the A. J. C. Spring Meeting has always been justly regarded as the best of the quartette, and judged by the different events which are to be decided to-day, it should not be any exception to the rule. Though the fields will be less numerous than on many previous occasions, there is every indication that the racing will be of a very high class character. The road to the course is in very fair order, and as the transit authorities propose making some effective arrangements with reference to hired vehicles and private conveyances upon their arrival and departure from the course, the inconvenience hitherto experienced will be avoided. Visitors to the saddling-paddock are again reminded that by procuring tickets of admission to that reserve at the advertised agencies in the city they will avoid the crush at the entrance gates. As on the first day, the curtain will rise at 1 o'clock, when the horses engaged in the Shorts will take their places at the post. As may fairly be supposed, the race is wonderfully open, but judged on recent form the places will probably be divided among Stockwell, Party, and Plutarch. The Grand Stand Plate will be a peculiar race to deal with: but on paper Faith, Sloth, and Here's Luck may be the hardest to beat. The Maiden Stakes will not cause much interest, and if Wycombe be worth his rock salt, he should carry the popular striped jacket to the front, and Thetis, Briar, and Ganymede may escort him home. The Metropolitan Stakes subject has already been written threadbare; and although the field, as far as numbers are concerned, will be a sort of reproach to the leading club, the race itself is so open that it may make amends for the indignity of so small a muster facing the flag for the principal event of the reunion. Even on the eve of the battle it is a difficult matter to indicate the winner. On the Spring Stakes running Abercorn should cover the two miles in about 3 minutes 35 seconds, but that is not good enough; while, if Honeydew cannot perform better than he did on Saturday, he must take a back seat. Cardigan's party are sufficiently silent to give a note of warning to his friends; but the steady advance of Frisco shows that he will stand in need of a deal of beating. The race promises to be a pretty one all the way; and, as Cardigan is not backed, "Nemo" opines that the places will go to Frisco, Touchstone, and Lamond. Volley should win the Oaks; and the most likely to fill the places in the Squatters' Handicap are Faith, Lyndhurst, and The Gift. The full programme is published in another part of this issue.

Nominations for the Canterbury Park October meeting were received yesterday, and appear in their proper place in this paper. The five events attracted 122 entrants, distributed as under:—Flying Handicap, 25; Park Stakes, 21; Disposal Stakes, 17; Eight Hours' Demonstration Handicap, 34; and Stewards' Mile, 25.

The scratching pen was very busy yesterday in connection with the "Ladies" race of 1888, for out of the 35 entrants for the Oaks only four remain to fight out the battle for supremacy. Those that are still in appear in another part of this paper.

The scratchings posted at the A. J. C. office yesterday in connection with the events to be decided at Randwick to-day are as under:—Shorts: Melody, Eyry, Cinderella, Rebel, Yellow Jacket, T.W., Tethys. Grand Stand Plate: Yellow Jacket. Spring Maiden Stakes: Essie, Melos, Claremont, Melbury, Savant, Ensign. Squatters' Handicap; First Flaneur, Victory, Eyry, Cinderella, T.W., Gefahr, Monte Christo.

Among the race meetings notified to be held during the month of November are Cully Blue, Mount Hope, and Armidale; the former takes place on the 1st, and the others are fixed for the 9th.

The Hay New Year's Race Club have framed and adopted a programme for their New Year's Meeting, to be held on January 1st and 2nd next, when £210 will be distributed in stakes over a dozen events. The sport includes hurdle-racing, trotting, flat-racing, and pony racing.

Although the competitors for the Metropolitan Stakes have been reduced to a dozen, there has been less speculation on that event than on any of its predecessors during the last 15 years. The lack of wagering may be attributed to the great amount of racing to which the public have been treated of late, as well as to the uncertainty that exists with regard to owners' intentions. Yesterday Frisco was shunted about in the betting, and at one time 10 to 1 against the son of Grand Flaneur was freely offered; but as the afternoon wore on a general commission was executed, and he was at once installed first favourite, finishing up at 100 to 30 offered. Lamond and Abercorn were also consistently supported at 9 to 2 and 5 to 1 respectively. Touchstone had admirers who accepted 8 to 1 in the early part of the evening, but later on he eased considerably, and at the finish an offer of 1000 to 60 failed to bring about any business. Blarney, from 10 to 1 taken, receded to 100 to 8 offered in the evening. A fair amount was written against Honeydew at 10 to 1, and 8 to 1 was on offer later on; while Arsenal was backed for a good sum at outside prices. The Nun, Cardigan, and Pet Girl had very few friends, even at the long prices offered. The latest quotations are as under:—3 to 1 v. Frisco offered, 7 to 2 taken; 9 to 2 v. Lamond, offered; 5 to 1 v. Abercorn, taken and offered; 8 to 1 v. Honeydew, offered; 10 to 1 v. Blarney, offered; 12 to 1 v. Arsenal, offered; 15 to 1 v. Elsie, taken and offered; 100 to 6 v. Touchstone, offered; 20 to 1 v. Leichhardt, offered; 25 to 1 each v. Cardigan and The Nun, offered; 33 to 1 v. Pet Girl, offered. During the evening some wagering was introduced on the Melbourne Cup, for which a line of £5000 to £300 was taken about Touchstone, and £5000 to £250 was written about Lamond.

A cable message from New Zealand, published elsewhere in this issue, announces the fact that the V. R. C. Derby candidate Carbine was shipped yesterday for Sydney, so that the son of Musket and Mersey may be expected to land here about Sunday next.

The bill of fare framed by the Sydney Hunt Club for their meeting which takes place on October 6, attracted a fair number of entrants—107 nominations having been received for the half-dozen events.

MELBOURNE BETTING MARKET.

MELBOURNE, MONDAY.

The betting at the clubs to-day was mainly confined to the Metropolitan Stakes, though the business done showed a very marked falling off from previous years. The principal feature was the support awarded to Frisco consequent on commissions from headquarters. The Sydney Cup winner during the day assumed the position of favourite, 4 to 1 being accepted; in the evening 3 to 1 was the best offer. At the Victoria Club Abercorn and Lamond were stationary at 5 to 1 offered; 7 to 1 was taken and offered about Touchstone and Honeydew. Other quotations: 10 to 1 Cardigan, Blarney, and Leichhardt, and 20 to 1 The Nun, Pet Girl, and Elsie, all offered. The Charmer was backed in genuine fashion for the Caulfield Cup at 100 to 5 and 100 to 6. Some money went on The Australian Peer for the Melbourne Cup at 100 to 5, after which 100 to 6 was offered.

THE V. R. C. DERBY.

CANDELO TURF CLUB.

CANDELO, MONDAY.

Entries for the Candelo Turf Club Spring races are numerous. It is anticipated that the meeting, which is to be held on the 6th of October, will be very successful.

CRICKET.

A correspondent, writing under the nom de plume of "Cricket," informs us that Turner's bowling average, as forwarded by cablegram, is 320 wickets for 3438 runs, equal to 10·74 runs per wicket.

The draw for the north and south wickets of the Domain took place at the office of the trustees of the Association Cricket Ground, yesterday afternoon, the following being the result:—North wicket: October 6th and 13th, Belvidere; 20th and 27th, University; 3rd and 10th, Warwick; 17th and 24th, Albert. December 1st and 8th, Customs; 15th and 22nd, Lands; 29th and January 5th, Belvidere; 12th and 19th, University; February 2nd and 9th, Warwick; 16th and 23rd, Albert; March 2nd and 9th Customs; 16th and 23rd, Lands; 13th, Belvidere; April 6th, University; 13th, Warwick; 27th, Albert; South Wicket: October 6th and 13th, Albert; 20th and 27th, Belvidere; 3rd and 10th, Lands; 17th and 24th, Customs; December 1st and 8th, University; 15th and 22nd, Warwick; 29th and January 5th, Albert; 12th and 19th, Belvidere; February 2nd and 9th, Lands; 16th and 23rd, Customs; March 2nd and 9th, University; 16th and 23rd, Warwick; 30th, Albert; April 6th, Belvidere; 13th, Lands; 27th, Customs. Holidays.—North Wicket: October 8th, Lands; November 9th, Belvidere; December 26th, Albert; January 1st, Warwick; 26th, Customs; April 20, University; 22nd, Lands. South Wicket: October 8th, Belvidere; November 9th, Albert; December 26th, Warwicks; January 1st, Customs; 26th, University; April 20th, Lands; 22nd, Belvidere.

The annual meeting of the Warwick Cricket Club was held last evening at Punch's Albion Hotel. Mr. C. Davis (vice-president) occupied the chair, there being about 20 members present. The annual report stated that the visit of two English teams last season had had a depressing effect on club cricket, and it was hoped that two or three seasons would elapse before the advent of another. The first eleven played 12 matches, winning 3, losing 2, and drawing 7. Mr. J. Davis won the club badge for best batting average, with 17·8 runs per innings. Mr. A. Gregory won the bowling trophy with an average of 7·8 runs per wicket. In the second eleven W. Alderson had a batting average of 34·4 runs, and W. J. Langley a bowling average of 9 runs per wicket. Regret was expressed for the death of Mr. J. Rigg, who was secretary for many years. Thanks were due to Mr. James Austin for his services as treasurer since 1883. The second eleven would play for the Marks Cup, on the Rushcutter Bay ground, during the forthcoming season. The second eleven played 20 matches, winning 4, losing 2, and drawing 14. The balance-sheet showed a small debit. The report and balance-sheet were adopted. The following office-bearers were elected:—Patron, his Excellency the Governor; president, Mr. P. B. Walker; vice-presidents, Messrs. J. Kellick, C. Davis, F. Bevill, J. Payne, J. Austin (sen.), C. E. Jeanneret, M.L.A., J. Davis (sen.), J. Oatley, J. T. Toohey, M.L.A., J. H. Carruthers, M.L.A.; hon. secretary, Mr. A. Gregory; hon. assistant secretary, Mr. J. G. Graham; hon. treasurer, Mr. J. Austin; committee, Messrs. W. J. Langley, C. Rogers, A. Hiddelstone, B. Mulroney, E. Seale, T. M'Donald, W. Alderson, F. Elliott, R. Daly, F. L. Weiss; ground captains for the domain, Messrs. T. M'Donald and J. Oatley; ground captains for the Association Cricket ground, Messrs. A. Hiddelstone and W. J. Langley; selection committee for first eleven, Messrs. A. Gregory, Elliott, and Payne; second eleven, Messrs. Ord, Graham, and Langley; delegates to the New South Wales Cricket Association, Messrs. Bevill and A. Gregory. It was decided to confer with the other clubs practising on the Domain and Association cricket ground, with a view of doing away with the defaulter nuisance. A vote of thanks was accorded to the retiring officers, and the meeting then terminated with a vote of thanks to the chairman.

PEDESTRIANISM.

In consequence of the boat race between Matterson and Neilson taking place on Wednesday next, the 26th instant, the Carrington Ground proprietary have decided to postpone the running of their hurdle and 300 yards flat races until Friday, the 28th instant. The acceptances for both events will close on Friday, at 2 o'clock.

CYCLING.

A match for a trophy was ridden on the Association Cricket Ground yesterday afternoon between Jenkins and Busst, the distance being two miles. Busst won the toss for stations, and took the inside running. Jenkins had the lead until the middle of the seventh lap, when Busst ran ahead, and again took the inside running. At the beginning of the last lap Busst had a lead of two yards, and did not again suffer himself to be caught. In the last 50 yards he slightly increased his lead, and won by three yards. The race was an exceedingly slow one, the time for the first mile being 4 minutes 50 seconds, and for the two miles 8 minutes 20 seconds.

AQUATICS.

BALMAIN REGATTA.

A public meeting was held in the Balmain Town Hall last night to take steps to arrange matters in connection with the Balmain Regatta of 1888. There were about 100 people present. Mr. E. H. Buchanan, the Mayor, presided. Mr. O. H. Chidgey, the treasurer of last year's regatta, read his statement, which, on the motion of Mr. F. J. Smith, M.L.A., was adopted. Mr. Chidgey read a letter which he had received from Mr. J. H. Storey, a treasurer of former regattas, from which there was a balance of £120. The writer stated that he had taken counsel's opinion with regard to the £120, and that it was his intention to distribute the money between the charitable institutions—the Balmain Cottage Hospital and the Balmain Benevolent Asylum. The treasurer read a telegram which he had received from Mr. Wm. Beach, the retired champion sculler, stating that he could not be present, but that on behalf of himself he would contribute something towards a prize, and would endeavour to get the other scullers on the river to join him so that they might give a good prize to the rising young scullers who were coming forward. The election of officers was then proceeded with. His Excellency the Governor was elected patron, the Mayor president, and the following gentlemen were elected vice-presidents:—J. Garrard, J. S. Hawthorne, F. J. Smith, M.L.A., and Aldermen Burns, Wheeler, and Clymer, S. H. Hyam, John Booth, G. Elliott, Captain Trouton, Captain Langley, and others. The following were elected a committee:—J. Reeder, W. H. Pacey, W. C. M'Dougall, L. J. Law, C. Mossman, George Milham, J. Fraser, and others.

ST. LEONARDS REGATTA.

A preliminary meeting of residents of St. Leonards interested in aquatics was held at Connolly's hotel, Lane Cove-road, last evening, the object of the gathering being the consideration of bringing to a successful issue a regatta on the waters of Middle Harbour. The chair was occupied by Mr. Frank Punch, who was also appointed treasurer. Mr. Conolly will act as secretary to the movement pro tem. It was decided that a public meeting be held on the 4th proximo in one of the principal halls of the borough, by which time the executive hope to report satisfactory progress. The regatta will be held on November 17, by which time all necessary arrangements are expected to be completed and sufficient funds in hand to enable the committee not only to pay the amount of prize-money specified, but have a surplus in hand to be devoted to a future fixture.

Henry E. Searle, the Clarence River oarsman, has issued a challenge to row the winner of the Hanlan-Kemp race for the sculling championship of the world and £200 or £500 aside. The match may be made at Neil Matterson's Aquatic Rendezvous Hotel, George-street.

The Americans are very anxious that Kemp should visit their country. The American correspondent of the Sportsman writes as follows:—"If Peter Kemp, the Australian oarsman who now holds the single-scull championship of the world, is willing to visit the United States and meet John Teemer, the American champion, he can combine business with profit free of expense. Kemp is anxious to row Teemer for the championship of the world, but he declines to row in America, or even allow the American champion expenses to go to Australia. Richard K. Fox, who donated the Police Gazette Challenge Cup, representing the single-scull championship of America, which Teemer now holds, is eager to bring about a match between these rival champions, and he has issued the following liberal offer:—' London, July 12. To William E. Harding, Sporting Editor, New York.—Notify Peter Kemp, the champion oarsman of the world, that if he will come to America and row John Teemer, the American champion, for the Police Gazette champion challenge cup, that I will offer a purse of five thousand dollars and allow Kemp one thousand dollars for expenses, the race to be rowed in the fall on suitable water to be mutually agreed upon, and to be for the single-scull championship of the world. Kemp may rest assured of receiving fair play and being well treated.—RICHARD K. FOX.' On the cable being received the following reply was sent to Kemp:—' Peter Kemp, champion oarsman of the world, care of Sportsman Sydney, New South Wales,—If you will row John Teemer single-scull race, three miles and turn, for Police Gazette Champion Challenge Cup, on American waters, I will put up a purse of £1000 sterling and allow you £200 for expenses; race to be rowed this fall. I will guarantee you good treatment and fair play. Answer at once.—RICHARD K. FOX, per W. E. Harding.' Should the Australian accept a race it will be quickly ratified, for Teemer desires to row Kemp. It is safe to say that the match would create quite a furore in both hemispheres. Kemp's reply will be eagerly looked for in sporting circles." It is safe to assert that the Hawkesbury man will not visit the States.

Matterson and Neilsen are in good fettle for their race, which takes place to-morrow afternoon, over the full championship course. The contest is for £100 aside.

Kemp and Hanlan are now busily engaged in making the final preparations for their great struggle on Friday afternoon. This race will be witnessed by some thousands of people if the weather proves fine.

The East Sydney Rowing Club will hold a handicap single scull race on Saturday next, for those members who have never started in a skiff race, for which, as is usual with this club, they have received a large entry, no less than 16 members having decided to compete for the prize, which is a valuable trophy presented by the president (Mr. G. N. Griffiths). The following are the names of the competitors:—W. M'Dowall, N. Tregarthen, J. Lillie, C. B. Read, R. Wernham, F. Stevens, H. Franks, G. S. Withers, W. Slatter, H. Thompson, J. H. Bowden, J. G. W. Dalrymple, J. Paton, J. Fraser, J. Quirk, and H. Steele. There will be four heats, the winners of heats to row off. The handicap, which is by time, will be declared on Wednesday; and as the course is only a mile and a-half, some good racing should result.

PIGEON SHOOTING.

The following are the handicaps for the open handicap match to be shot off at the New South Wales Gun Club's grounds on Wednesday:—

MESSRS. SEE AND EWING, Ms.L.A., AT GLEN INNES.

[BY TELEGRAPH.]
(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

GLEN INNES, MONDAY.

Messrs. See and Ewing, Ms.L.A., addressed a crowded meeting at Glen Innes on Saturday night. The Mayor presided. Discussing the railway policy, Mr. See said, he journeyed up the Newton Boyd-road, over the Big Hill, and was disappointed. He had been frightened by stories, but he could not see anything formidable about the hill; the journey could be made on a bicycle. The Big Hill was the merest mite in comparison with the Blue Mountains, yet a railway was constructed over them. The two positions were identical in many important particulars, and the necessity for a railway over the Blue Mountains and the necessity for a line from Grafton to the west. The proposed line would secure a great interchange of productions, an enormous trade would spring up between the tropical productions of the Clarence and the semi-tropical productions of New England. It would be the precursor to new and great industries, and in the development of that part of the colony. No one acquainted with the subject could have any doubt that without the assistance of the coast tableland railway the trade of New England would go to Brisbane. As it was, bullock teams were plying between Grafton and Glen Innes, and competing successfully against the railway. No clearer proof should be needed than this. Grafton was the natural outlet for the trade of New England and the western country. They had a magnificent district; rich in every kind of material resources, and with especially rich and prolific land, but they wanted a market for their productions. Where could they get that market unless they sought the coast district? He was pleased to notice that the residents of Grafton, Glen Innes, and Inverell had united, and were making common cause in demanding the Glen Innes-Inverell railway. How could there be a doubt as to the national character of the work? This was recognised by the leader of the present Government, as in the course of speeches delivered by him in 1872 and 1874 he strongly supported the claims of the coast tableland railway. In taking that view the Premier took his stand upon purely patriotic grounds. He denied that the country between Glen Innes and Grafton was barren. Apart from its fruit-growing qualities and magnificent timber, it also, no doubt, contained untold mineral wealth. What was the sum of two million pounds for building a railway through a country like that? But, above all, it would open the door to commerce on the coast. Mr. See did not approve of differential rates, they were unfair to the public as a whole, and he thought the proper course was to open up the different intermediate ports. That was the policy adopted by the Queensland Government and it was found to work well. The Government of this colony seemed to entertain no such expansive views. Mr. See then proceeded to discuss fiscal matters, arguing in favour of protection.

Mr. Ewing also addressed the meeting in support of the cause of protection.

THE BOTANICAL GARDENS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD.

Sir,—I readily believe all that your correspondent says re rough treatment from those in charge at the Botanical Gardens; indeed, it is a proscribed place with us now. I with my two little children was sitting quietly on a seat surrounded by a large number of people, when one of my little ones committed the terrible misdemeanour of standing up behind me and playfully putting its tiny arms around my neck, when I heard a rough man calling out from a distance, where he was digging, "I say, you, get off that." Two or three times he repeated it. I heard it distinctly, but thinking he was addressing a fellow-workman took no notice, until he again bawled out that "he would get me turned out if I did not get that child off the seat." A lady near me said she thought he was speaking to me. I was astounded that the man could not discern that the child was of that age that we usually stand them on our lap. I am one who always have helped to keep the seat we have sat on and the ground surrounding it from being littered by even the smallest piece of orange peel, feeling that we all give our mite towards the gardens being kept in order; and yet we are not allowed to enjoy them without being insulted, and by a set of men unsuitable for the places they hold.

I am, &c., M. MARGOLD.

September 24.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD.

Sir,—It was with much pain that I read your correspondent's letter in your Saturday's issue, in which Mr. Cutler states that he was almost brutally ordered off our Botanical Gardens on the previous Sunday, because he went there in an invalid's chair. Now, sir, are those poor wretches who are already deprived of man's best treasure, health, also to be deprived of one of our most refreshing and health-giving resorts, simply because they have to be wheeled there? Surely the chair is not an obstruction to the public; or if it is, why not have a small portion of the grounds set apart for invalid chairs? One would hardly think that a case like Mr. Cutler's could really occur in this free (?) land of ours. Hoping you will insert the above in the interests of those whom it most concerns,

I am, &c., A STRANGER.

THE ARRANGEMENT OF THE BOOKS AT THE FREE PUBLIC LIBRARY.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD.

Sir,—Might I dare to inquire through you why a book called "Unexplored Beloochistan" (once lengthily reviewed, by-the-bye, in your admirable columns) should be placed on a shelf labelled "Europe," in the Free Public Library? And will the same harmony of arrangement prevail when the new building, now so nearly finished, is open for use?

I am, &c.,

An extraordinary general meeting of the New England Gold-mining Company, Limited, was held at the company's office, Pitt-street, yesterday, Mr. James Angus in the chair. Resolutions to the following effect were carried:—"That it is desirable to reconstruct the company, and that the company be wound up voluntarily, and that Mr. A. Gallagher be appointed liquidator for the purpose of such winding up." "That the said liquidator be authorised to consent to the registration of a new company, to be named 'The New England Gold-mining Company, Limited.'" "That the draft agreement submitted to the meeting, and expressed to be made between the company and its liquidator, of the one part, and the New England Gold-mining Company, limited, of the other part, be approved, and that the said liquidator be authorised to enter into an agreement with such new company (when incorporated) in terms of the agreement, and to carry the same into effect." We are informed that the winding up of the company being a formal proceeding the operations of the company proceed on as usual, the new company taking over all the assets and liabilities of the old company.

A meeting of the Adeline Gold-mining Company, Fairfield, was held at the company's office on the 21st instant, Mr. John Reid in the chair. The following gentlemen were elected directors in place of those resigned:—Messrs. L. Philipps, S. Ackman, G. H. Davis, and Hon. H. E. Cohen.

Dividend of £1 per share has been declared in the Moonta mine, payable on October 1, this being the sixty-second dividend, making a grand total of one million one hundred and fifty-two thousand pounds paid in dividends.

BROKEN HILL, MONDAY.

In reference to the Terrible Dick smelter, news has come to hand that after working two days the furnace became slagged, and the charge had to be cut out. A new operator is coming from Sydney, and the operations will soon be resumed. The opinion of experienced men is that the ores of other mines should be mixed with those from the mine. The company are advertising that they are willing to buy outside ore. The general work of the mine is progressing much as usual. Fair ore is being got from the winze between the 107 and 180 ft. levels, and from the drive at the last depth.

LISMORE, MONDAY.

Five tons of stone from Long Gully have averaged 30oz. to the ton.

CARCOAR, MONDAY.

At Mount M'Donald some excitement has been caused, owing to the cancellation of the gold leases at Eureka, Eureka South, Woolloomooloo, and Pig and Whistle.

PARKES, MONDAY.

Crushing operations will be at once resumed. Splendid specimens have been obtained in Opossum Gully by Moore and party.

MANAGERS' REPORTS.

Terrible Dick Silver Mine, 19th September.—Main shaft total depth 223 feet, with vein of ore showing in south side which gives the impression that there is a larger body of ore close by. 180ft. level south drive now in a distance of 125 feet; have struck the ore looked for, but cannot yet tell extent of same, being as yet no distance on it. Lode is widening as work progresses, the ore equally as good if not better than that already procured. The winze from 107ft. level for the purpose of supplying air to lower level south is down 25 feet; in it I have struck the ore which runs from 107ft. to 180ft. levels. This ore also looks well, and is improving. The smelting plant is ready to start again on the arrival of Mr. Gozzel, the new smelter.

The Sunny Corner Silver-mining Company, Limited, 22nd September.—Three Pacific and 7 Reverberatory furnaces have run full time, reducing the following material, viz.:—131 tons 1st matte; 56 tons 2nd matte; 280 tons roasted black mineral; 112 tons raw tailings; 4 tons gossan ore; 127 tons flue rust; and 161 tons probert slags. Total, 876 tons. Estimated assay value of product for week ended 15th instant, after deducting value of re-smelted matte already reported is £1909. Week's Work: All furnaces have done good work, and a large quantity of flue dust has been profitably smelted. No. 8 Reverberatory has been finished, and the revolving roaster erected on its bearings. Mine: Have driven a cross-cut 28ft. through big lode in No. 2 level, and not yet reached the eastern wall. We are driving north and south on the western part of this lode. Driving north to meet the winze that is coming down from No. 3 level. The eastern cross-cut in No. 2 level driven 4ft. The contractors in No. 3 winze sunk 10ft.; total depth, 60ft. The lode is now taking its proper pitch. At shaft on north end western crosscut has been driven 4ft., making 20ft. in all. Have struck lode at the end of crosscut, and have gone 3ft. into it, but no hanging-wall yet. It is a nice-looking lode, carrying gold and silver, and a good deal of mineral through it. Ore sent to the kilns for the week was broken principally from No. 2 level, centre, eastern, and western blocks.

Mount Morgan Extended Gold-mining Company, Limited, September 15.—No. 1 tunnel has been extended into the knob a further distance of 27ft.; total distance from commencement, 338ft. Ground still composed of quartz of a favourable-looking character. No. 1 (or main) shaft has been sunk a further depth of 10ft.; total depth of shaft, 141ft. No change whatever. Crosscut from No. 2 shaft extended west a distance of 3ft. Ground highly mineralised. Have arranged for carriage of boiler from Rockhampton.

Mount Costigan North Silver and Lead Mining Company, Limited, September 22.—Progress made in drive is 8ft., making a total of 61ft. The country is much the same except a little more pyrites in the slate rock. Will have to drive to cut No. 3 lode before we cut No. 2, as I can see that the latter is only a slip from the former, and they will be all one when cut at this depth.

Sultan, 19th September.—Air shaft broke through into lode on Saturday, and since then sinking has been carried on in lode stuff. The lode appears to be going down more perpendicular, and has all the appearance of a very strong lode. The ore on the footwall has always been the best.

Rising Sun, 15th September.—Engine shaft drive east from bottom of shaft has been extended 3ft. for week; total, 26ft.; country still hard. Underlay shaft is now down to water level, 143ft. from brace. Start next week to drive west.

Rising Sun Extended, 15th September.—West drive extended 8ft.; total, 67ft.; country full of garnet sandstone. Still of opinion the lode is to the west.

The Pinnacle Tribute Silver-mining Company, Limited, September 15.—100ft. north-west level: winze sunk 4ft. 6in. during week. The ore raised is of the same character as last reported. 200ft. north-west level driven 3ft. 6in.; appearance unchanged.

Eukaby Hill Proprietary Company, Limited, September 15.—Macdonald's shaft, No. 1: Ground harder. Six men driving east and west. The lode going west improving. Macdonald's shaft, No. 2: Six men on at this shaft. The lode, which is of the same character as last reported, continues to go down vertically.

Picton Broken Hill Silver Company, September 15.—Crosscut in No. 1 shaft driven 6½ft.; total, 51ft. from shaft. No change to report, ground still sandstone. In No. 2 shaft have chiefly been engaged making room, squaring shaft and fixing windlass, and sunk shaft 2ft.; total, 8ift. Trenching in block No. 2487 had been continued.

The Golden Gully Gold-mining Company, Limited.—Main shaft sunk 7ft.; total from plat 34ft., from surface 134ft. Ground pretty tight for sinking. Water about the same as last report. No. 1 south level extended 13ft.; total from plat 104ft. Cut two small spars, one about 4in. and the other 3in. thick, both full of mineral. On account of the air getting light, I started to clean up a shaft 61ft. south of main shaft; at a depth of 54ft. from the surface I struck bottom. Here I discovered a reef about 7in. thick, showing gold—in my opinion a payable reef. About 38ft. to connect with No. 1 south level. We shall then have the mine well ventilated, and the shaft will act as a shoot for upper workings. About five or six weeks will connect shaft with No. 1 south level. Surface works: Bye-wash No. 2 dam completed. Started cutting tail-race for pump for battery. Engine arrived; expect to start foundations for same coming fortnight.

White Rock Central Silver-mining Company, Limited, September 20.—No. 2 shaft sunk to a depth of 42ft. 6in. from the brace, or 3ft. 6in. for the week. From the present appearance of the ground I believe we are actually on the cap of the lode at the present level, 80ft.

The Alpha Gold-mining Company, Limited, September 22.—Have sunk the shaft 2ft., total depth 77ft. From the 100ft. level the ground has not been so good for sinking, but looks more favourable in the bottom again. Have also broke down the stone, which shows a little gold. The splice of stone that I mentioned in my last report did not continue down far, which has made the reef small at present. Have now 10 tons of ore at grass.

Spicer's Lewis Ponds Gold and Silver Mining Company, Limited.—The drive from No. 3 South's Prospecting Shaft has been extended 12ft. since last report, and is now in 105ft. Indications in the face still good, being a mixture of quartz and gossan, showing also lead. The whole of the mining staff are now working in the main shaft, driving on the course of the lode north towards the old shaft, and bringing gossan ore of splendid quality to grass. This is now in 5ft. The drive to the south has been taken in 6ft. further, and is now in 23ft., the face consisting of gossan and pyrites. I have about 2 tons of ore from the old lode dressed, and ready for sampling, also about 8 tons from the new lode, and I am now dressing a pile of the pyrites ready for sampling.

South Lewis Ponds Gold and Silver-mining Company, Limited.—Prospecting Shaft No. 1: The eastern drive in this shaft has been lengthened 9ft. since last report, and is in altogether 62ft. The last 4ft has passed through quartz. Prospecting Shaft No. 2: The western drive in this shaft being 194ft. at last report, is now extended to 205ft., the ground becoming more slaty and easier for working. Prospecting shaft No. 4 has been sunk 9½ft. during this week, total depth being now 50½ft. The ground is harder sinking, but the strata has taken quite an opposite underlay to that which it formerly tended. The underlay is now to the east, and quartz coming in at the east end at the bottom of the shaft. Prospecting Shaft No. 5: This shaft is sunk a further depth of 7ft., making it now 54ft.

Elsie May Silver Mine.—The contractors finished their contract for shaft on 13th instant. Present depth, 70ft. from plat and 131ft. from surface. The lode, which had pinched to 3in. when we resumed sinking, has widened to fully 9ft., and is composed of quartz, gossan, iron pyrites, and carrying a little galena. The walls, both hanging and foot wall, have been good all the way down to within a few feet of the present bottom, where the hanging-wall became rotten, and at present the water, which has increased considerably the last three days, is all coming from the hanging-wall. Have discovered another lode on surface about 50ft. east of present workings, and am of opinion that the two will come together before a great depth is attained, which accounts for the influx of water and the hanging-wall being rotten. I have had to put the men timbering a few days. The sinking is remarkably good.

The Rising Sun South Silver Mine, September 15.—A further depth of 5ft. has been sunk in No. 2 shaft, making a total depth of 95ft. from surface. The strata sunk through this week is much the same as last week. The brown quartz veins intermixed with the garnet sandstone are widening as depth is attained, and are much fire-stained, which resembles the strata adjoining the lode in the Rising Sun property. Veins of kaolin have been met with this week, averaging about 1in. in thickness, which is also much fire-stained.

COMMERCIAL.

PRODUCE MARKET—MONDAY.

This morning there was a fairly good attendance of the trade at Darling Harbour auction sales. The supplies of forage consisted of 33 trucks of hay, 825 of chaff, and 10 of straw, making a total of 67 trucks. Buyers' operations were chiefly with respect to good coloured lots of oaten and wheaten hay, but other descriptions of forage were slack. There was no improvement reported in wood. At the wharfs the supplies received were below Monday's average, and were principally from Northern rivers and Southern ports. Trade opened quietly. Butter and maize were easier. Bran and pollard were dull. At the Darling Harbour sales the following prices were realised:—

Wood.—Ample supplies. Unaltered; at per ton:—Billet, 7s 6d to 10s; bundle, 8s 6d to 12s 9d; foot, 9s to 12s 3d; bakers', 8s to 11s.

Hay.—Larger consignments than for several days. Good coloured descriptions commanded most attention, other sorts were slack. Oaten, in bundles, 5s 8d to 6s 6d per cwt.; other kinds 4s 9d to 5s 6d; lucerne, in truss, 3s 7d; bales, from Wellington, 3s 6d; Singleton, 3s to 3s 8d; oaten and wheaten, in bundles, 5s 1d; bales, 4s 11d; hay and straw in bundles 2s 6d.

Straw.—Although only a small quantity was received, it was sufficient for requirements. Clean wheaten, in bundles, 2s 2d to 2s 4d per cwt.; derrick-pressed, 2s 7d.

Chaff.—Moderate stocks, including a larger proportion of straw chaff than usual. Oaten, in bag, 4s to 5s per cwt.; straw, in bags, 2s 5d to 3s.

At the wharfs the following were the wholesale quotations:—

Maize.—The shipments from various Northern rivers yesterday and this morning amounted to 6111 bags. Slightly weaker; 3s to 3s 1d per bushel.

Oats.—Remain steady at 2s 5d to 2s 6½d per bushel for feed lines; milling classes 2s 7d to 2s 8d.

Barley.—Cape seed still quoted at 2s 10d to 3s per bushel.

Bran.—Slack, 1s 2d per bushel.

Pollard.—Weak, 11d per bushel.

Hay.—Rather smaller supplies than of late were forward from the Hunter River this morning. Best dry well-saved green lucerne. £5 to £5 10s per ton; brown summer and lower descriptions range from £2 to £4 5s.

Chaff.—Stocks decreasing. Adelaide sorts, £4 10s to £5 10s per ton; Victorian, £4 to £5.

Onions.—Steady, £7 15s to £8 per ton for Victorian varieties.

Potatoes.—Circular Head quoted at £4 to £4 10s per ton; Ballarats, £4 to £4 5s; New Zealand, £4 10s; Warrnambool, £3 10s to £3 15s.

Butter.—Values again receded. Illawarra dairy kinds, 1s 4d to 1s 6d per lb.; roll, 1s 4d to 1s 6d; factory-made, 1s 6d to 1s 8d.

Cheese.—A comparatively small Southern ports shipment of 207 received yesterday. Ordinary colonial sorts, 7½d to 9d per lb.; loaf and choice brands, to 9d.

Bacon.—Still quiet. Hand-cured, Southern, 8d to 8d per lb.; machine-cured, 5d to 7d; heavy and rough pieces. 2d to 3d. Hams, 6d to 8d.

Lard.—Finely rendered, in bladders, worth 6d per lb.; bulk, 5½d to 4½d.

Eggs.—Additional supplies received this morning from various Northern rivers. Unaltered; 10d per dozen.

Poultry.—Steady demand; at per pair: Fowls, 3s to 4s 6d; ducks, 3s 6d to 5s; geese, 5s 6d to 7s; turkeys, 6s to 12s.

FAT STOCK SALES.

At Homebush fat stock sales on Monday, 850 head of cattle were yarded. The bulk of the supply was of medium kinds. The market was unaltered. The best lot of bullocks averaged £7 14s 7d per head; others, from £5 9s 2d; cows, £4 3s 2d to £4 15s 5d. 15,600 sheep were penned. This number was sufficient for trade requirements. The Meat Company purchased freely. The best lot of merino wethers sold to 13s 6d per head; others, from 6s 1d. Lambs were quitted at 4s 3d to 9s 3d. The following sales are reported:—By Messrs. Joseph Leeds and Co.—22 bullocks (Armytage and Powell), at £6 10s 2d; 74 cows, at £4 3s 2d; 1096 ewes (western agents), 8s to 8s 4d; 563 wethers (W. Brown), 12s 1d to 12s 3d; 58 seconds, 9s 10d; 100 wethers (J. Lawson), 12s to 12s 1d, 2491 at 9s 7d to 9s 9d; 286 culls, 6s 3d. By Messrs. T. Sullivan and Son.—107 bullocks (W. J. Forrester), averaging £5 9s 2d. By Messrs. Wilkinson and Lavender.—168 bullocks, for F. W. Armytage, averaging £6 11s, 28 cows averaging £4 15s 6d; 1298 wethers, for Fowler, Carstairs, and Mandeville, at 7s 10d to 9s 2d, 2602 shorn wethers at 6s 9d to 7s; 173 wethers (A. S. Burcher) 10s to 11s, 187 wethers 8s 6d to 9s 4d; 85 hoggets (S. A. Hutchinson) 10s 9d to 11s 8d, 205 lambs 10s 2d to 11s 10d, and 127 young lambs to 6s 3d. By Harrison, Jones, and Devlin, Limited.—2500 shorn wethers, W. E. Ball, to 8s; 150 lambs from the south, to 6s 8d. By Messrs. Alexander Wilson and Co.—For Watt and Co., 1433 wethers (shorn, at 6s 7d to 6s 11d; 59 at 5s 7d to 5s 9d. By Mr. George Maiden (for R. Goldsbrough and Co., Limited).—A draft of bullocks for T. P. Fagan, at £7 14s 7d. By Pitt, Son, and Badgery, Limited.—154 bullocks (Dangar Bros.), at £6; 198 bullocks (A. A. Company), £6 0s 2d; 2032 wethers (A. A. Company) at 12s 11d; 139 wethers (G. and C. Binnie) at 13s 6d, 463 wethers at 12s 2d, 95 wethers at 10s 6d, 36 lambs at 8s to 9s 3d; 1492 wethers (Dangar Bros.) at 11s 7d to 12s; 180 wethers (N. agents) at 11s to 11s 2d.

CATHOLICITY v. BIGOTRY.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD.

Sir,—The ablest exponents of British Protestantism, deploring the unseemly estrangement of the various sections of the visible Church, have for some considerable time been earnestly seeking to bring about their rapprochement. That Bishop Barry should be influenced by a Catholic spirit of this kind must be matter for rejoicing to every enlightened Christian. But there are exceptions to every rule; hence, owing to some peculiar idiosyncrasy of thought, Mr. David Buchanan indicts the Primate and all of his charitable way of thinking for indifference to religious truth and cherishing latitudinarian opinions. If the different religious denominations are to keep their garments clean, according to Mr. Buchanan, there must be no contact between them, but each must protect itself from such a contingency by a carefully-guarded chevaux-de-frise of self righteous exclusiveness. The Apostle Paul enjoins that each individual Christian should esteem others more than himself, and if heaven is to be a place of bliss, your correspondent's discordant gospel is sadly at fault. The more earnest and conscientious a man's faith is so will be his catholicity of spirit, without which, the Apostle says, all Christian profession is vain as "sounding brass or tinkling cymbal." To establish his case Mr. Buchanan magnifies the points of difference between the non-Episcopal churches and the Church of England; but everyone knows that, apart from its hierarchical system of government, the Church of John Knox could subscribe to the Thirty-nine Articles as in no way contrary to the Confession of Faith. Practically, there is no essential doctrinal difference between any of the evangelical British churches, though there is an unbridged chasm separating them from Rome. The several Protestant denominations form so many divisions of one army, and it is bigotry akin to that of the Pharisees to pretend that communion with either can be prejudicial to truth. According to the Scriptures, there is no impeccable church on earth, because the men and women of which the Church is composed are not impeccable.

I am, &c.,
September 20. R. K. S.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.—For all weakness of the stomach, which is the forerunner of almost every disease known to man, we call attention to Rowe's Dandelion Bitters as a preventive. If timely use be made of them they will prevent all the horrors of indigestion. Try them. All chemists.—[ADVT.]

The Import markets were not characterised by much activity to-day, and yet there was a firmer tone than was the case a little while ago. In the breadstuffs market nothing noteworthy transpired. In respect to merchandise generally, the near approach of the close of the month was marked by the almost entire absence of any transactions on a large scale. Cement continues to be very firm. An entire shipment of American plaster, to arrive, was placed at 10s. Inquiry was noted for export for American slates, which are quoted at about £9. Trade lines of currants moved off, the quotation for a good sample of which is 5d. duty paid. Of dates, a large parcel was placed at 2½d. The malt and hops market is controlled by one or two holders, and both descriptions of goods are firm; malt is quoted at from 7s. to 7s. 3d. for prime samples, and Tasmanian hops at 1s. 3d. In jute goods we hear of the sale of a trade parcel of woolpacks at 1s. 11½d. The transactions in respect to liquids generally were effected simply for the purpose of meeting immediate requirements. Large sales were, however, made of Robertson's single star and three star whisky for forward delivery. A parcel of Courvoissier's brandy in bulk was cleared for export to Melbourne. There was a little more inquiry for geneva. Goulet's champagne also received some attention. Metals continue to be firm. A sale of a trade line of Brady's Empress iron is reported at £18 7s. 6d. A demand was noticed for most of the better brands of iron, but holders, fortified with a knowledge of English quotations and the rise in freights, did not display any eagerness to do business. A small parcel of No. 8 fencing wire was quitted for export at equal to current market rates. Teas received some attention, and 150 half-chests changed hands at a shade over 50s. Good medium quality congou was in fair request; but buyers' views did not come up to the requirements of holders.

Messrs. Harris and Ackman will offer for sale by auction to-morrow (Tuesday), a quantity of Queensland and colonial sugars, spirits, and groceries.

At the auction wool sales to-day the business done had not much significance. The following reports have been furnished to us:—

Messrs. Harrison, Jones, and Devlin, Limited, report having submitted a catalogue of 99 bales of wool at their fortnightly sale to-day. The lots offered were not very attractive, being mostly oddments and medium to inferior parcels, and for such the demand was fairly spirited. Prices offered were in many cases slightly below owners' expectations, and there being a general disposition to await our opening sale on October 1, we withdrew most of the shipping lines. In all 45 bales were sold as follows:—Greasy: JMcL over Garah, 6 at 7d.; SA, 5 at 6½d., 2 broken at 5½d. Scoured: OB&Co. over Yass, 6 to 11½d.; FC in diamond over Bridgewater 1 A&B Clo, at 13½d; FS in diamond, 1 at 13; SA, 9 to 11d. We also cleared a large catalogue of skins at 4d. to 5d. for best, 3½d. to 3¾d. for medium, to 3d. for short.

Mr. F. L. Barker held a sale of wool to-day. A steady demand existed and a clearance was effected at rates quite equal to those at last sales. Fair scoured brought to 11½d. (no super. offering), greasy, 4d. to 7d. per lb.

Messrs. R. Goldsbrough and Co., Limited, have received the following cablegram, dated London, 22nd instant:—

"Wool: At yesterday's sales there was good all-round competition, and the bidding is now very brisk. A very good tone, and a rise in Australian wools ranging from ½d. for greasy to 1d. for scoured. For crossbreds of all sorts there is no improvement in prices. 34,000 bales have been catalogued to date, of which 3000 bales have been passed in. Tallow: Market advanced 6d. to 1s.; market firm. Wheat: Our wheat market continues dull and depressed, showing a fall since last wire of 1s. per quarter; market falling."

The New Zealand Loan and Mercantile Agency Company, Limited, have received the following cablegram, dated London, 21st instant:—

"Wool: Sales gain firmness as they progress. Superior greasy has advanced ½d. per lb. since close of last sales. Scoured has advanced ½d. to 1d. per lb. since close of last sales. Other descriptions unchanged. Since the date of our last telegram up to date 31,000 bales have been sold. Wheat: Market is depressed and has a downward tendency. Victorian wheat f.a.q. is worth c.i.f. off coast 38s. 6d. per 480lb. Tallow: Market strong. Good mutton tallow is worth 27s. per cwt.: good beef tallow is worth 26s. per cwt. Medium and inferior mutton and beef tallow is in demand, but fine is neglected."

The Union Mortgage and Agency Company of Australia, Limited, have received the following cablegram, dated London, 21st instant:—

"Wool.—Market generally is stronger than at the opening; really good wools 5 per cent. higher."

The Australian Mortgage, Land, and Finance Company, Limited, have received the following cable from Messrs. Helmuth, Schwartze, and Co., dated London, 21st instant:—

"Wool.—There is an increase in the animation. Prices as compared with closing rates of last series are ½d. higher for greasy; crossbreds unchanged."

The steamer Port Pirie cleared at the Customs yesterday for London, via ports, with 2876 bales wool, under hatches.

The following was the Customs revenue received today:—

Spirits, £2604 17s. 5d.; wine (still), £73 18s.; wine (sparkling), £10; ale, porter, and beer (in wood), £36 5s.; ale, porter, and beer (in bottles), £149 12s. 6d.; tobacco and snuff, £438 15s.; cigars, £94 3s. 8d.; cigarettes, £7 0s. 8d.; tea, £498 1s. 9d.; coffee (raw), £21 11s. 9d.; sugar (refined), £805 0s. 9d.; opium, £95 17s. 6d.; rice, £91 17s. 2d.; dried fruits, £61 18s. 5d. Specific duty: Bacon and hams, £3 14s. 10d.; butter, £41 8s. 1d.; candles, £2 19s. 5d.; cement, £20; cocoa and chocolate, £3 14s. 8d.; confectionery, £6 2s.; fish, £17 19s. 6d.; galvanised iron, £100 19s.; galvanised manufactures, £45 1s. 9d.; iron and steel wire, £25; jams and jellies, £62 16s.; oils (in bottle), 12s.; oils (other), £5 12s.; paints, £8 2s. 6d.; preserves, £12 12s.; salt, £72 4s. 6d.; spirits (methylated), £29 8s.; timber (dressed), £229 18s. 11d.; timber (undressed), £188 9s. 1d.; harbour and light rates, £79 2s. 8d.; pilotage, Sydney, £33 3s.; harbour dues, £93; excise on beer, £7 5s.; tobacco factory license fees, £11; 8s. 9d. Total, £6107 13s. 3d.

Messrs. Richardson and Wrench report having sold by private contract a block of property in Castlereagh-street South for £16,600.

LATEST COMMERCIAL TELEGRAMS.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENTS.)

MELBOURNE, MONDAY.

The business to-day was good in the aggregate, and spread over a considerable number of companies. Silver shares were rather dull. In Bank shares only a limited amount of business was done. In mercantile and finance the Victorian Freehold and Silverton Tramway had good support at full prices. Higher rates ruled for Montgomery's Brewery, Queen Investment, Fraser and Co., and Federal Land, the last-named being largely dealt in at rising prices. Real Estate was lower. A good number of shares in R. Goldsbrough and Co. quitted at reduced prices. There was a fair extent of business in gold companies, Star of East, Gay's, Band of Hope, O'Connor's Freehold, Ophir Deep Lead, and North Johnson realising advanced prices. Chalk's Freehold was rather easier. Gay's had numerous transactions at from 4s. 6d. to 6s. 6d., receding afterwards. In silver companies, the business was of a limited extent, without much changes in values generally, but Block 14 and British Blocks quitted at reduced prices. Pinnacle, Tribute sold at higher rates. In tin companies, Brothers' No. 1 sold under late quotations. Others were unchanged. The Australian Smelting Refining Company, Limited, have received the following London telegram, September 21:—"Standard silver, £3 8·3 decimal 1s. 6d. per ounce. Market declining. Soft Spanish lead £14.7s. per ton. Market firm."

Sales: Federal Bank, 71s. 6d.

The markets have uniformly opened quiet. The grain trade is depressed and disorganised. Wheat is nominally worth 4s. 3d. for parcels, ex station. New Zealand oats are quoted at all kinds of prices. Cape barley and peas are worth 2s. 10d. to 2s. 11d. Maize is being offered at 3s. 5d.; bran is weak at 11d. There is an unsettled feeling throughout. Tea is weaker. Cement sold at 15s., ex wharf. Dried fruits are weakening. There is no alteration in kerosene oil, but the trade are buying cautiously. Hennessy's one-star brandy is selling largely at 34s. 9d.

ADELAIDE, MONDAY.

The wheat market is paralysed; nothing whatever is doing. Quotations are nominal, in the absence of operations. Shipping parcels at port Adelaide, 4s. to 4s. 2d.; farmers' lots, 1d. less; outports, large parcels quoted worth 3s. 11d. to 4s. 1d., only farmers' parcels selling. Flour is depressed, and nothing is selling except what the trade wants. Roller brands are quoted at £10 to £10 10s.; superfine, £9 to £9 10s.; household, £7 to £7 10s., quiet. General trade is very quiet.

VISITORS TO MELBOURNE

Can have letters addressed to them at the Sydney Morning Herald Court during the holding of the Melbourne Exhibition.

BRANCH OFFICE, KING-STREET.

A BRANCH OFFICE in connection with the "SYDNEY MORNING HERALD" has been opened at No. 136, King-street, Sydney, between Elizabeth and Castlereagh streets, for the receipt of advertisements, sale of papers, and transaction of general business. Communications, letters to the Editor, answers to advertisements, &c., can be forwarded to the Branch, as well as to the Head Office, in Hunter-street. Office hours from 6 a.m. to 10 p.m.

SUMMARY FOR EUROPE.

Our Special Summary of colonial news, for transmission by the Orient Company's steamer Oroya, will be published in the Herald of Thursday next, September 27, on which day the mail will close in Sydney. Persons desiring to send to their friends copies of the Herald can have them posted direct from this office by forwarding the necessary addresses and a penny stamp in addition to the cost of each paper.

The Sydney Morning Herald.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 1888.

An official denial has been given to the report that the life of the Princess of Wales was imperilled at Gmunden, Upper Austria, where her Royal Highness was staying.

PROFESSOR BROWN, of Canada, appears to be pleased with Adelaide, and to think very highly of the possibilities of the colony. He says that were the climate and the soil not so prolific agriculture would be more progressive.

THIRTY farmers of South Hummocks, South Australia, are sending an agent to Albany to ascertain the prospects of farming and grazing there.

NEWS comes from South Australia that the wheat market is paralysed; there is nothing whatever doing.

THE Queensland Typographical Association has resolved that the minimum weekly wages of compositors shall be increased. The proposals are to come into operation on the first of next month.

A MAN named Gustave Hillman has been fined at the Adelaide Police Court for offering to sell the return half of a railway ticket to Hergott.

THE firemen have to be in constant attendance at the ruins of D. L. Brown and Co.'s warehouse, Brisbane, which are still smouldering, although the fire occurred a week ago.

THIS fire is said to be the largest that has yet had to be dealt with by Australian insurance offices. The companies in Queensland say that they have been subject to losses bordering on a quarter of a million above premiums paid, and there is a suggestion that higher rates should be charged.

ABOUT 120 men left Townsville yesterday for the Sudest goldfields, New Guinea.

THE Victorian Engineer of Ports and Harbours suggests that signal letters, under geographical index, in the international code, should be allotted to Hobson's Bay, Port Melbourne, and Williamstown.

THE Bishop of Melbourne says that whilst the population of that city has increased by 148,523 during the last nine years, yet the church accommodation has only increased from 23,601 to 30,484.

THE railway traffic employees yesterday held their annual picnic in celebration of the 33rd anniversary of the opening of the New South Wales railways. There was an attendance of about 3000 persons.

MR. GOODCHAP says that for carefulness and integrity he does not think the railway staff of New South Wales can be surpassed by any other in the world. On the railways of Great Britain, for every £100 received as revenue they paid away 18s. as compensation; but here we had never paid more than 4s.

THE Senate of the Sydney University has appointed a committee to consider and report as to the best mode of making use of the services of the teaching staff in the government of the University.

STEADY rain is reported from a large number of up-country townships, and it is stated that its value to many districts cannot be over-estimated.

ACCORDING to private telegrams, there has been good all-round competition at the London wool sales. The bidding is now very brisk, and there is a rise in Australian wools.

AN abstract of the moneys received by the Water and Sewerage Board up to date shows that the total sum amounts to £36,695.

H.M.S. SWINGER left Cooktown for New Guinea yesterday.

TEN of the crew of the barque Theodor Ducoso, which was burnt at Tahiti, arrived here yesterday from Noumea by the S.S. Tanais.

IT was reported at the monthly meeting of the State Children's Relief Board yesterday that there were 2077 children under the control of the board. Authority was given for the apprenticeship of 26 boys and two girls.

THE North Shore United Friendly Societies held a picnic at Clontarf yesterday, and in the afternoon Sir Henry Parkes and Mr. Ives, the local members, visited the grounds. The object of the demonstration was to augment the funds of the North Shore Hospital.

SIR HENRY PARKES says that he intends to die a member of the Legislative Assembly. There is no Upper House for him. He is too young for that body, and intends to remain too young for them; and so long as St. Leonards feels disposed to return him, as a free and unfettered representative, so long it may rely upon receiving his free and unfettered service.

THE Victorian Pilot Board have found that the grounding of the barque Freetrader, near Geelong, was due to an error of judgment on the part of the master, who was warned with regard to the future.

BY a fire at Wollongong, Kop's store has been burnt to the ground, stock being lost to the value of £3000. The fire also extended to a private residence, and a solicitor's office adjoining.

THE Victorian Railway Commissioners have accepted a tender of £31,325 for 25 first-class suburban carriages.

THE mediation committee at Newcastle has prepared a modification of the masters' and miners' agreements. The draft has been submitted to individual members of the delegate board, and the committee has received a good deal of encouragement.

PREPARATIONS were made on a large scale yesterday for the removal of about 4000 tons of coal from the Newcastle Coal-mining Company's pit. Twenty-seven labourers brought from Sydney were received by the police. There was no serious disturbance.

A MASS meeting of miners at Lithgow was addressed on Saturday by Messrs. J. A. Davidson and A. Gray, who explained matters in connection with the strike from the miners' point of view. A vote of sympathy was passed pledging moral and pecuniary support until the cessation of the dispute.

WITH but one or two exceptions, all the labour societies around Adelaide are forwarding subscriptions to the miners. Large contributions are also being sent from Queensland.

AT Melbourne a man attempted to snatch a bag containing £175 from a boy employed by Rocke and Co. As he held on to it, he was lifted up into a buggy, which was then driven off. Commencing to scream, he was dropped out, the vehicle passing over him. The thieves escaped.

A COMPLIMENTARY banquet, tendered by the land trustees of the Trades and Industrial Hall Association, to celebrate the opening of the temporary buildings, took place last night. Several members of Parliament were present, and Mr. Abigail, M.L.A., made an address, in which he alluded to the objects of the association.

MR. LEES, M.L.A., has addressed his constituents at Springwood and received a vote of confidence.

AT a public meeting at the Balmain Town Hall last night, a resolution was passed asking the Mayor and the aldermen, in conjunction with the members for the district, to wait upon the Government and urge upon them the necessity of reclaiming White Bay.

TEN articled seamen of the Swedish barque Otto Lina were sentenced to an hour's imprisonment at the Newcastle Police Court yesterday for combining to disobey the lawful commands of the captain.

A SALE of Crown lands on the Albury Common took place yesterday. The total proceeds amounted to £4100.

THE Borough Council of Young have received the Governor's warrant authorising them to contract a loan of £12,000. They intend to purchase the Mechanics' Institute for a Town Hall and Free Library, and to do other public works.

Our neighbours in Victoria are now considering the question of electoral reform. Here the subject has been staved off for nearly eight years by the operation of the Act of 1880; but we shall have to deal with it again in some way before many more years have passed. Our Electoral Act of 1880 made provision against the difficulties which Ministers in Victoria are now endeavouring to remove, but the result has not been satisfactory, and the bill introduced by the PREMIER last session, and read a second time in the Assembly by a majority of 32 to 16, was practically an admission that some other system must be tried. In all new countries, where the population is comparatively scanty, and its distribution is liable to disturbance from time to time by temporary conditions, the equitable apportionment of the representation throughout a course of years is a matter of much difficulty. Some electorates obtain within a short term a large increase in the number of their voters; others remain stationary; others fall off; and thus, in the absence of special legislation to prevent it, inequalities arise. Some districts obtain an undue share of voting power in the House, whilst others have less than is fairly their due. Serious inequalities had thus been developed before the passing of our last Electoral Act; and the state of things in Victoria at the present moment is probably as bad. The Melbourne Argus mentions three electorates returning a single member each for an aggregate of 3506 electors, and three others which, with 14,610 electors, command only the same number of votes in the House. Again, two electorates return three members each for 11,113 electors, whilst two others return four members each for 17,124. Further, 17,000 electors in certain country districts return 14 members, whilst more than 50,000 in the metropolis return 13. In 1876, when the last redistribution was made, one member to every 1500 electors was the proportion aimed at. The illustrations given above show that there have been great departures from this standard through the general increase of the population, and the fact that it has not increased in all the electorates alike. The Government of Victoria has now brought in a bill providing for the entire redistribution of the representation upon a scale that would allow one member to every 2400 electors or thereabouts. At the time of our last general election the average number of electors per member was 2106.

The difficulty in passing a Redistribution Bill at the present moment in Victoria is greatly increased by considerations of party politics. Opposition members, for instance, are certain to object strongly to changes that would give increased voting power in the House to constituencies that return supporters of the Ministry. Difficulties of this sort are seldom absent from the treatment of redistribution bills. And there is another difficulty which can hardly be avoided by any Government framing such a bill on firm lines, and setting its face against an unwise increase in the number of members. There must be a levelling down in some places, as well as a levelling up in others, and few Ministries show a disposition to provoke hostilities by resorting to the first of these two processes. The bill just introduced by the Government of Victoria proposes an addition of eight members to the Assembly, increasing the total from 86 to 94. It is said that only one town, namely, Geelong, will be deprived of any portion of its representation. But this result is arrived at by altering the boundaries so as to include with the towns which have shown a falling-off a certain proportion of the neighbouring population. Changes of this sort are almost certain to provoke much discussion, because in some cases they may tend to alter the character of the constituencies.

It was to avoid troubles of this sort that Sir HENRY PARKES introduced those provisions into the Act of 1880 which entitle electorates with increasing electoral rolls to return, subject to certain precautionary conditions, additional members. Nothing of the kind is reported as forming part of the new bill in Victoria. The Bill simply provides for an entire redistribution, leaving untouched the possibility, nay, the certainty that after a further lapse of years a new crop of inequalities will have grown up, and a new Redistribution Bill will be imperatively called for. Upon that point the journal already referred to remarks: "We shall probably have to put some Scientific Apportionment Act upon our Victorian Statute-book, for the changes of population here are great, and it is inadvisable to let inequalities grow until a scandal has to be rectified by a struggle." We quote this remark because of the contrast between the opinion which it expresses and that which was expressed by the majority in our Legislative Assembly last session when the second reading of the Electoral Act Amendment Bill was carried. So far as the expansive provisions of our Electoral Act are concerned, that statute sets up a system of what was considered eight years ago to be "scientific apportionment;" but the division on the Amending Bill of last session meant clearly that this system must be brought to an end. If it checked the growth of inequalities on the one hand, it introduced a possibly worse evil on the other, because it entailed a too rapid increase in the number of members. The first Assembly elected under the new Act of 1880 consisted of 108 members. At the last general election 124 were returned. At the next general election, unless something be done in the meantime to prevent it, the number will be 132. The opinion expressed by the House in July last, though rendered ineffective by the prorogation, was that this too rapid growth should be stopped at any cost, even at the risk of allowing inequalities to develop themselves until the pressure should become strong enough to carry a general Redistribution Bill. The Argus, in suggesting a scientific apportionment, recommends a rearrangement of the electorates after each census by a non-political board, on the basis of a standard to be supplied by Parliament. But the first question is, whether Parliament would be willing to lower the standard from time to time as would be necessary for the prevention of the overgrowth that is the result of our system. And the next question is, whether Parliament would be willing, even if it sanctioned the progressive lowering of the proportion of members to electors, to allow a non-political board to rearrange the electorates, and to carry into effect that levelling-down process which has so many terrors for the Ministerial imagination. It should be remembered that when the system now in force here was first proposed, it contained provision for the automatic reduction of the representation of constituencies with diminishing electoral rolls. But considerations of equity had to give way to the fear that the House would not consent to recognise them.

It is a fact of some significance that the Victorian Ministry has been content to propose an addition of only eight members to the roll of the Assembly. It is considered that 94 members will be enough to do the work of the country; 86 have been found enough hitherto, and it is probable that the proposal to add eight more has only been made because it was thought inconvenient, or dangerous, or both, to attempt the readjustment of the representation without making a slight increase to lessen friction. There would have been too much cutting down in some places to make up deficiencies in others. Here, when we were reconstructing our electoral system in 1880, we made a jump from 73 to 108. It cannot be shown by any broad test that better work has been done in our Assembly during the last eight years than during any corresponding period of our Parliamentary history. Nor can it be proved that the tone and standard of the House has been improved simultaneously with the increase of its members. Nor can it be said with truth that if a comparison were instituted between our overgrown Assembly and the less pretentious establishments of the other colonies, we should have any special reason for congratulating ourselves on grounds of a better local display of dignity or efficiency.

It has been remarked often enough, and long before the Rev. J. G. FRASER referred to the fact in his interesting lecture on "The Power of Language," which we published yesterday, that Australia is not free from a certain peculiarity of pronunciation of the commonest English words. We are developing something of the kind that resembles in a measure the peculiarity of pronunciation that Englishmen first observed with curiosity among the descendants of the early New England settlers, from which what was known as the "Yankee twang" afterwards proceeded. Some of the instances given by the lecturer are characteristic of Australian speech. There is certainly an observable tendency to say "taown" for "town" among young colonials, and "laike" for "like," as well as "dy" for "day." Boys at school have a difficulty in distinguishing clearly between the two vowel sounds when they come together at the end of one word and the beginning of another following it, and very few young Australians would think of hesitating between the pronunciation, for instance, of "colza oil" and "colzaroil." Public school-boys drop the concluding "g" at the end of certain words with an easy unscrupulousness, and the miserable little barbarism that consists in the use of "ain't," for "is not" or "are not," is quite a familiar atrocity amongst young Australians. Anyone who cares to observe this kind of thing will be struck by the number of quite characteristic mannerisms and violations of the purity both of language and pronunciation that seem to belong almost exclusively to the youths of Australian cities, and will mark a difference between our young people's ordinary speech and that of the new arrival as plain as that between the intonation of Boston and Oxford, or between that of Americans from the Eastern and Western States.

We do not mean by this to imply that the language has deteriorated intrinsically in Australia, so much as that words that are used correctly and grammatically enough in themselves are marked by a certain indefiniteness of articulation. Our speech is not so clear-cut as that of our English fathers, and there is a suspicion of a slight nasality which does not amount exactly to a drawl, but which is sometimes quite as slovenly and often a great deal more unpleasant to ears accustomed to the classic purity of cultured English speech. Some of the best known writers of English who have visited us from time to time have, as a matter of fact, remarked upon the grammatical purity of speech in Australia, and its contrast with the provincialisms the ear becomes accustomed to in England, just as travellers have sometimes said that the language has more justice done it in New York than in London. Indeed, as a people we may be said to be singularly free from anything even distantly approaching the dialect of Somerset or Cumberland, for instance, or the slovenliness of articulation and clipping of syllables of Birmingham, or the burr of Northumberland, and half-a-dozen other provincialisms that might be mentioned. We are singularly free from bad models in this particular; but, unhappily for the correction of the mannerisms we have mentioned, we are also singularly free from good ones. Mr. FROUDE, when he was in Australia a few years back, was struck by the correctness with which English is spoken here, a fact probably due as much to the excellence of the common school systems of the colonies as to the absence of anything that might set up a bad model for perpetuation. What we have that is questionable is of self-growth, and this is just the kind of thing that can only be properly corrected by the study of good models and good standards of comparison. Now and then we have had public speakers in the colonies whose enunciation was a liberal education in itself in this particular direction; but their influence has been limited within narrow circles, and then there is always that suspicion of affectation about the imitation of these good speakers for which young Australians often express such a hearty, if sometimes amusing, contempt. Speaking with regard to those of the youthful population generally who have not the advantage of a high-school education, the correction of colonial peculiarities of pronunciation is a matter that must be left in very great measure to the personal influence and good taste of the teachers in our primary Public schools.

No instructor of youth who has any sense of that beauty and power of language to which the lecturer so appreciatively referred, will fail to regard it as a pity that corruptions and impurities of language or pronunciation should become characteristic of the rising Australian generation. The beauty and the power of spoken words depend almost entirely on their fastidious though unaffected choice, and the distinctness and purity with which they are delivered even in common speech. Mr. FRASER'S eloquent remarks seemed to embody the results of a great deal of careful thought and critical observation, and it is clear that the lecturer spoke on a subject of which he fully felt the importance. Much depends on matter, but much also depends on style, in spoken as well as in written speech, and no cultured person can be insensible to the magical charm of the crispness and freshness of written English in the works of the ARNOLDS, the NEWMANS, the MACAULAYS, the DE QUINCEYS, and the host of others who have illustrated the beauties of the English tongue. All the fascination of association that clings about the use of noble words is lost in slovenly or unappreciative utterance; and though the written style of great writers is of course inappropriate to the ordinary purposes of conversation, yet the study of these models in schools and lecture-rooms could not be without a good effect on the popular mind in this respect. The choice of words, and the purity and correctness with which they are expressed, are not by any means a mere matter of affectation, or even a simple question of good taste. If the world is ruled by syllables, and the style makes the man, the cultivation of these things has its practical uses as well as its scholarly or æsthetical value. The best speakers of English are as simple in their choice of words as they are unaffected in their use; and, though a master of English may be as sensitive to the value of a word or a tone as the painter to a touch of colour, or the musician to a note of music, it is here that the perfection of art consists in its concealment, and the best effect is in the absence of affectation.

It would be too much to say that the drought has broken up, but it appears to have come to an end so far as some parts of the colony are concerned; while, as to the others, there is every reason to hope that the change in the weather will also be complete. It will be seen from the reports of our correspondents that the rainfall of the last few days has extended to almost every district. On the coast and in the southern districts it has been tolerably heavy, ranging from one inch to three inches, while even in what are known as the dry districts, that is to say the country lying to the west and north-west, there has been a substantial fall, varying from half an inch to 2in. At Balranald, and in the country round about, for example, rain has been falling at intervals since last Thursday, and at some stations as much as 2in. has been recorded. The quantity measured at Cobar was 1in., at Carcoar 1¼in., and at Parkes 1½ inches. At Bourke, Wilcannia, Broken Hill, and other places in the Far West the rainfall was lighter; but, light as it is, it has done a great deal of good, and there is hope that more will fall. Although the rain has come too late to save some of the crops, in other cases it has arrived in time, while the pastoral country has everywhere benefited. In the districts where rain has fallen to the extent of an inch or two inches there will be a good growth of grass; but where the fall has been light, as at Wilcannia and in the surrounding country, the condition of things will not be materially altered for the better unless more rain should come soon. Even where the rainfall has been substantial a good deal more will be required during the next two or three months if we are to have a really favourable season. The ground was extremely dry to begin with, and the evaporating power of the sun is now considerable. The rain that has fallen during the last few days has greatly altered the prospects of the country, but we are not yet in a position of security. However, we may hope to have more broken weather before the summer sets in. The greater part of the year has been abnormally dry, and it is not unreasonable to hope that the remainder will be of a different character. But whatever happens, we must be thankful for present blessings. Some of the reports that we have published as to the condition of the crops, the pastures, and the live stock have been alarming, but danger has been removed by the timely rainfall. We can now breathe freely.

The annual picnic of the railway employees yesterday was lifted out of the usual routine by the fact that the COMMISSIONER made it the occasion of saying some words of farewell to the officers and men of the department. It was natural, under such circumstances that Mr. GOODCHAP should desire to say pleasant rather than unpleasant things; but if he did say pleasant things, he was able to show that he had good reason for saying them. For example, having declared that for carefulness and integrity the railway staff of New South Wales could not be beaten by any other in the world, he quoted statistics to show that there was good ground for the statement. He had ascertained, he said, that on the railways of Great Britain for every £100 received as revenue there was paid away 18s. as compensation for personal injuries and loss of goods, while on the New South Wales railways the proportion had never been more than 4s. It must have given Mr. GOODCHAP, as the administrator of our railway system for so many years, a great deal of pleasure to be able to make such a statement, and it will be read with satisfaction by the public. In comparing our railways with those of Great Britain it must not be forgotten that on the latter the traffic is much heavier and the liability to accident therefore greater, but on the other hand some of the conditions on which the English lines are worked are more favourable than the conditions which belong to our own railways. As Mr. GOODCHAP pointed out, most of our lines are single, and on those single lines all sorts of trains—fast express, mail, passenger, and goods—have to be run. Considering all the circumstances, the infrequency of serious accidents on our railways is highly creditable to the staff, and the COMMISSIONER was fully justified in calling attention to the point. What Mr. GOODCHAP said about himself and his successor was conceived in a good spirit and expressed with good taste. He frankly admitted, as he did in his letter to the PREMIER declining the offer of the second commissionership, that he experienced disappointment when he found that he had not been selected to fill the leading position in the new order of things, but he went on to say, "he could put all that aside, and give to the gentleman who was coming out from the old country all the assistance he possibly could." No one, he added, would be more glad to see Mr. EDDY'S administration a success than he should be, "because his interest in the Railway Department and in the welfare of the country was superior to any personal consideration." The manner in which Mr. GOODCHAP has behaved under somewhat trying circumstances does him i finite credit. He has shown all through an excellent spirit. The way of the world is to place personal considerations first, and to give little or no thought to the public welfare; but Mr. GOODCHAP takes the opposite view of things, and in doing so sets an example which others would do well to follow.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

MRS. FAIRFAX will not receive at Admiralty House until Tuesday, October 16.

WE are glad to learn that the Hon. C. J. Roberts, Postmaster-General, had recovered sufficiently from the effects of his recent accident to be able to resume his official duties at the General Post Office yesterday. The Hon. J. H. Young, Speaker of the Legislative Assembly, who was hurt in the same accident with Mr. Roberts, is also progressing favourably towards recovery, though still suffering considerable pain from the shaking he received.

THE meeting of the Parliamentary Committee on Public Works, which fell through on Friday last for want of a quorum, will be held at 7 o'clock to-morrow. On Thursday the members of the committee propose to make a tour of inspection to the site of the suggested works at Potts Hill, and on their return they will examine the proposed route for the second line of water-pipes in connection with the water supply of Sydney.

HIS HONOR Mr. Justice Innes sat in the No. 1 Jury Court yesterday, to finish the action, Smithers v. Coghlan. It was announced, however, that the case had been settled. Among the matters dealt with in Chambers, by Mr. Justice Foster, was an application by defendant, in the action Parker v. Falkiner, to change the venue from Deniliquin to Sydney. The plaintiff sues the defendant to recover £10,000 damages for slander, alleged to have been uttered by defendant in a statement made by him, containing an insinuation that plaintiff had exhibited as grass fed, at the Deniliquin show, sheep that were in reality artificially fed. The parties are well-known squatters in the Deniliquin district, and defendant thought that his case would be prejudiced by the fact that he had been disqualified from competing in future at the Deniliquin Pastoral and Agricultural Society's show, upon a protest lodged by plaintiff. His Honor refused the application, as he did not consider it likely that defendant's case would be prejudiced.

A SOMEWHAT important meeting of the Municipal Conference will be held at the Town Hall at 10 o'clock this morning. Over 100 delegates are said to be already in town and a very full muster is expected. The subject of local government will be one of the principal matters discussed, and every effort will be made to induce the Ministry to bring in and press on with a Local Government Bill in the ensuing session.

THE members of the Water and Sewerage Board will wait upon the Minister for Works (Hon. John Sutherland) this morning, for the purpose of urging that the bylaws now in the hands of the Parliamentary draftsman may be considered and passed by the Executive Council as speedily as possible, in order that the rate-papers for the present half-year may be got out.

AT a meeting of the Water and Sewerage Board, held at the offices, George-street North, yesterday afternoon, under the presidency of Mr. T. Rowe, it was stated that the sum of £36,695 2s. 11d. had been received up to date by the department. A quantity of routine and other business was transacted, and it was announced that the board intended to lay mains, for reticulation purposes, in certain thoroughfares at Leichhardt, Burwood, Waterloo, Petersham, and East St. Leonards.

MR. ALEXANDER BRUCE, Chief Inspector of Stock, returned to Sydney on Saturday from Old Junee station, where, on the 18th instant, a batch of 20 sheep were vaccinated by M. Pasteur's representatives. This was the second lot of sheep treated. The third and final test is fixed for October 2, when 20 vaccinated sheep will be inoculated with virulent virus of anthrax, 20 unvaccinated sheep also being treated. It is expected that the latter will die within 50 hours therefrom, and that the others will survive. Mr. Gehrings method of treatment will be tested at the same time.

Two pictures that arrived too late for the opening of the Art Society's Exhibition have been hung on the wall during the last few days. They are by Mr. Charles E. Hern, late of Sydney, who has some pictures in the National Gallery of New South Wales, but who has for some time past been residing in England. The first of these new pictures, which, of course, have not been entered in the catalogue, is one of "Bridge's Reach, Rochester," a pleasing subject in water-colours, showing a reach of water in the foreground, touched with varying tints of fleeting colour, and a soft romantic effect is given the scene by the dim, shadowy castle on the hill to the left and the mist-curtained bridge in the far distance, as well as by the boats in the foreground with their embrowned and warm-tinted sails. The other picture gives a view called "Near Fulham Dock, Early Morn," and in this, too, the "feeling" of the subject has been cleverly reproduced. There is a marshy reach of water, broken in the foreground and to the left by a cluster of sedge and weeds; a weather-worn hulk lies up beside a skeleton pier, the idle ropes and broken spars giving a picture of desolation. Away in the distance a soft misty perspective fades away against a morning sky, and the effect of early day is well brought out. Like the other, this picture is romantically conceived, and both bear evidence to Mr. Hern's conscientious study of detail and carefully elaborate work.

IN addition to many local letters, the Grand Secretary of the United Grand Lodge of New South Wales of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons has received letters and telegrams from the following District Grand Lodges expressing approval, and congratulating the body on its formation as an independent Grand Lodge:—District Grand Lodge, E.C., Tasmania; ditto, Western Australia; ditto, Otago; ditto, Wellington; ditto, Christchurch, New Zealand; Provincial Grand Lodge, S.C., Auckland; ditto, I.C., Brisbane; ditto, I.C., Auckland.

THE September sittings of the Metropolitan Court of Quarter Sessions were commenced yesterday at the Darlinghurst Courthouse before his Honor Mr. District Court Judge Docker. Several prisoners who pleaded guilty on arraignment were remanded for sentence. A number of cases, for the most part of an unimportant character, were dealt with during the day. The Court will resume at 10 o'clock this morning.

THE Sherbrooke Annual Wild Flower Show will be held in the Oddfellows' Hall, Bulli, from the 3rd to the 6th October. As the railway is to be opened on the 3rd a large number of visitors is expected.

A CONCERT will be given by the St. Andrew's Literary Institute in the Y. M. C. A. Hall this evening, when the Mayor of Sydney will occupy the chair.

THE following is the order of musical service at St. Andrew's Cathedral this afternoon at 4.30:—Magnificat, Stainer, in E flat; Nunc Dimittis, Stainer, in E flat; anthem, "The Lord is great in Zion" (Best).

REPORTED ACCIDENT TO THE PRINCESS OF WALES.

[BY CABLE.]
(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

LONDON, SEPT. 23.

A report having been circulated to the effect that the life of the Princess of Wales had been imperilled at Gmunden, in Upper Austria, where her Royal Highness is staying, an official denial to the report has been issued from Marlborough House.

THE WEATHER.

There is every appearance of a wet spring, and already the gardens and lawns show signs of great fertility. There is only one house in the city that can present a really comprehensive display of horticultural implements, from a pruning knife to a lawn mower. It is almost superfluous to add, the house we refer to is Lassetter's.—[ADVT.]

INTERCOLONIAL NEWS.

[BY TELEGRAPH.]
(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENTS.)

VICTORIA.

MELBOURNE, MONDAY.

In reference to the name "Australasian wool trophy," on the matter coming before the Executive Commission to-day, Colonel Sargood stated that he had received a telegram from Mr. R. Burdett Smith withdrawing the objection to the inscription over the wool trophy, and he had forwarded a reply thanking him for the willingness to consent to the sign on the wool remaining.

The last meeting in connection with the congress of the Salvation Army was held to-night in the Collingwood Town Hall, preceded by a procession 1000 strong. The proceedings were very successful. Addresses were delivered by the Australian delegates.

The attendance at the Exhibition to-day was 8338. Musical entertainments were excellent.

In the Assembly to-morrow Mr. Woods will ask the Premier to indicate the sympathy of the people of this colony with the Newcastle miners by ordering coal from the unassociated mines, which are expected to start work on the miners' terms.

To-day the Pilot Board sat to inquire into the circumstances attending the grounding of the barque Free-trader near Geelong on August 6. The evidence showed that, owing to the erection of a new pile light, the master mistook the landmarks. The vessel was not damaged, and the board found that the mishap was due to an error in judgment on the part of Henry Bowden, the master, and warned him to be more careful in the future.

With the object of meeting the convenience of the owners of vessels in Melbourne, and agents of vessels owned outside the colony, the Engineer of Ports and Harbours has recommended the Commissioner of Customs to request the Agent-General to apply to the Board of Trade to allot signal letters under geographical index in the international code to Hobson's Bay, Port Melbourne, and Williamstown respectively.

To-day the railway authorities accepted the tender of Mr. Ellis for 25 first-class suburban double bogie carriages for £31,325.

The Bishop of Melbourne to-day delivered the inaugural address at the opening session of the Church Assembly in Trinity Hall, East Melbourne. He said that whilst the population of Melbourne increased by 148,523 during the last nine years, yet the church accommodation only increased from 23,601 to 30,484, or equivalent to five and one-fifth per cent. in the increase in the population. He trusted before long that those interested in the religious education of the young, and who desired to see the Bible introduced into the State schools, would have an opportunity of urging their views with effect.

QUEENSLAND.

BRISBANE, MONDAY.

The ruins of D. L. Brown and Co.'s warehouse, which was burnt down last Tuesday morning, are still smouldering. The firemen have to be in constant attendance with their steam fire engines. What remains of the walls are now being pulled down.

Three men were killed in the accident on the Cairns-Herberton railway line on Saturday, their names being James Cull, Raphael Antonia, and Lisidine Conomo. The accident arose through a fall of earth in No. 13 tunnel, Cairns. Another man, named Rose, is in the hospital, having been seriously injured on Saturday by the explosion of a charge.

Chinamen are leaving Mackay in large numbers. The s.s. Birksgate took 63 as passengers on Sunday, 50 being for Cooktown, and the balance for Cairns.

An adjourned special general meeting of the Chamber of Commerce was called for to-night to discuss the new tariff, but only eight members attended. The meeting consequently lapsed.

About 20 men left Townsville to-day for Sudest.

H.M.S. Swinger left Cooktown this morning for Port Moresby. Whyte, the leader of the party who discovered gold at Sudest, was a passenger.

Messrs. Thomas and Madden, the Cooktown agents of the A. U. S. N. Company, announce their intention of putting on a steamer for Sudest if sufficient inducement is offered.

A large steamer under sail passed Cooktown bound south this afternoon.

NORMANTON, MONDAY.

On Thursday morning Constable Wavell, who is an old and experienced bushman, with two black troopers, went out in search of Neil Neilson, carrier and publican, who had gone on Monday to search for his teams, and whose horse was brought back riderless on Wednesday, with the saddle and bridle on. Last evening the search party returned and reported having found Neilson's body in some bushes 18 miles from Normanton. Several portions had been eaten, probably by native dogs. Constable Wadell had sent in on Friday a man named Devine, who was lost in the bush, and but for the search for Neilson probably would have perished.

SOUTH AUSTRALIA.

ADELAIDE, MONDAY.

At a representative meeting held this afternoon, a committee was appointed to promote a testimonial to the poet Charles Mackay. It was resolved to have an appropriate entertainment, and to open subscription lists.

Edward Hooper and Gustav Hittmann were summoned at the police court for selling return railway tickets. Hittman advertised in Hooper's name, and offered to sell a return half-ticket to Hergott for 2s., less than the single fare. Hooper was dismissed. Hittmann was fined 5s. and costs, £3 5s. in all.

Mr. Harry Turner is calling a meeting to consider the nominations of two directors for the Broken Hill Company.

Mr. Robert Hamdorf, on behalf of 30 of the farmers of South Hummocks, is leaving by the R.M.S. Carthage for Albany, to inspect and ascertain the suitability of the land for farming and grazing purposes.

TASMANIA.

HOBART, MONDAY.

Amongst the reductions of salaries, that of lowering the salary of the inspector of mines to £150 means the practical abolition of the office. Great indignation exists in mining circles.

Splendid rains fell on Saturday night and all day on Sunday. Rain was very much needed, as a drought was feared along the north-west coast.

A woman named Mrs. Hawkins was struck dead by lightning on Saturday night, and the chimney of the house thrown down and a hole forced in the roof. She was the support of three children.

The decrease in the Tasmanian banking business is mainly in the deposits of the last six months.

THE QUEENSLAND TYPOGRAPHICAL ASSOCIATION.

[BY TELEGRAPH.]
(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

BRISBANE, MONDAY.

A special meeting of the Queensland Typographical Association was held on Saturday night to consider the proposed amendment in the rules for increasing the minimum weekly wage to £3 and piece rates to 1s. 2d. and 1s. 1d. per 1000 for night and day work respectively. After discussion the proposed advances were unanimously agreed to, and it was decided to bring them into operation on the 1st of October. A further meeting is to be held next Saturday to consider the reply of the employers in regard to the matter. The question of assisting the Newcastle miners was discussed, and £25 was voted towards their relief from the funds of the association. It was also agreed, if matters affecting the association were settled satisfactorily, to give the miners further help.

SHOCKING SUICIDE AT SANDHURST.

[BY TELEGRAPH.]
(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

MELBOURNE, MONDAY.

A horrible case of suicide was committed at Sandhurst last night by a man named Samuel Smith, aged 53. When going to his room about 10 o'clock he remarked to his son that he wanted to be buried at the Back Creek Cemetery. The son found his father's body on the floor of the bedroom this morning with a gash in his throat, and his body cut open. Medical testimony showed that the body wound was the cause of death, and that after deceased had inflicted the wound in the throat he must have deliberately disembowelled himself. His wife is in Melbourne nursing a sick daughter.

THE VICTORIAN ELECTORAL BILL.

[BY TELEGRAPH.]
(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

MELBOURNE, MONDAY.

The Electoral Bill will be brought before the Assembly to-morrow. It deals only with the redistribution of seats, and does not in any way amend the Electoral Act under which all rolls are prepared and elections held. A bill to amend that Act has been under the consideration of the Cabinet, and was discussed this afternoon. It will be introduced in the Assembly as soon as possible, and an effort will be made to pass it through Parliament as a companion measure to the Redistribution of Seats Bill. The amendments to be made in the law are of wide application, and will principally relate to the compilation of rolls. In this connection it is intended to require that closer supervision shall be exercised in granting rights to persons claiming to vote under the manhood suffrage clause of the Act, so that the rights shall not be issued unless the registrar is thoroughly satisfied that the applicant has given his correct address, and otherwise particulars of his claim.

THE NATIONAL PARTY IN QUEENSLAND.

SIR THOS. M'ILWRAITH ELECTED PRESIDENT.

[BY TELEGRAPH.]
(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

BRISBANE, MONDAY.

A general meeting of members and adherents of the National Party was held to-night. There was a very fair attendance. The Hon. R. D. Morehead, Colonial Secretary, occupied the chair, and apologised for the absence of Sir Thos. M'Ilwraith. Mr. W. Robertson read a report showing the occurrences which led to the formation of the party, and the steps that had been taken to bring it to its present position. The report stated that a great many well-organised branches had been formed in metropolitan, suburban, and country electorates. A delegate from the council interviewed several gentlemen in Melbourne and Sydney recently, and on all sides the party was warmly congratulated. A number of speeches were delivered, and various resolutions were passed, including one that the Council be instructed at once to proceed with the establishment of branches of the party in every electorate in Queensland. The principal object of the meeting was the election of a president and 20 councillors. Sir Thos. M'Ilwraith was elected president.

A NEW GOLDFIELD IN WESTERN AUSTRALIA.

[BY TELEGRAPH.]
(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

PERTH, MONDAY.

Excellent news has been telegraphed from Roebourne respecting the Pilbarra Goldfields. Over 100oz. of alluvial gold have arrived from Roebourne within the last two days, the gold including several good-sized nuggets, one of which weighs 35½oz., with about 8oz. of quartz. All the men on the field are making good wages. There are prospects of the establishment of a payable field. It is reported that there is plenty of alluvial country in the neighbourhood. Water is scarce. Up to the present time about 300oz. alluvial gold have been brought into Roebourne.

A CANADIAN PROFESSOR ON SOUTH AUSTRALIAN AGRICULTURE.

[BY TELEGRAPH.]
(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

ADELAIDE, MONDAY.

Professor Brown, of Canada, left this afternoon for Melbourne, returning in three weeks to make himself further acquainted with the agriculture and forestry of South Australia. He is much pleased with Adelaide. He paid a visit to Beefacres farm, the property of Hart Brothers, under the management of Mr. Grierson. Mr. Brown is aware that this farm may be above the average in soil management, but spoke in very high terms indeed of the possibilities of our province as illustrated there. He considers Adelaide farmers are in one respect at least in agreement with the sister colony, from which he hails, in that they are "too well off, and able to make an independent living by comparatively little exertion. Nature is so propitious that men become lazy, and, were the climate and soil not so prolific, agriculture would be more progressive. Mr. Brown has concluded to remain permanently in Australia.

DARING ROBBERY IN MELBOURNE.

[BY TELEGRAPH.]
(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

MELBOURNE, MONDAY.

At about 5 o'clock this evening Harry Forster, 15 years of age, employed at Messrs. W. H. Rocke and Co.'s, was sent with £175 to pay the wages of the men at the factory, Leicester-street, Carlton. Just as he was entering the street, a man rushed up and attempted to snatch the bag. The boy clung to the bag, and the man lifted him into a stylish buggy, where a second man drove away with the lad, who kept calling out. He drove towards Queensberry-street. As the vehicle turned into the street, the first man presented a revolver at the boy, and threatened to blow his brains out; but the lad still calling out, the man threw him out of the buggy, the wheel of which passed over the youth. The bystanders picked him up, and the men got away with the money. A number of people in the streets at the time heard the lad's cries, but no one offered assistance.

CARD-PLAYING IN A RAILWAY TRAIN.

ALLEGED LOSS OF £713.

[BY TELEGRAPH.]
(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

BRISBANE, MONDAY.

George Freeman was charged at the Police Court to-day with obtaining £713 from Jas. Jackson by means of false pretences. It appears Jackson and Freeman were travelling in the train together, when the accused proposed a game of cards. Jackson agreed, and played till he lost over £713. He afterwards gave the accused in charge, alleging that he had been robbed. The Bench held that there was no case against the accused, who was consequently discharged.

THE LATE FIRE IN BRISBANE.

MEETING OF INSURANCE COMPANIES' REPRESENTATIVES.

[BY TELEGRAPH.]
(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

BRISBANE, MONDAY.

Colonel Freeman, Chief Adjuster of Fire Insurance Claims for the Southern Colonies, who is now in Brisbane for the purpose of adjusting the claims in connection with the fire at Messrs. D. L. Brown and Co.'s, was present at a meeting of the representatives of the various insurance companies this afternoon, at which explanations were given that convinced him that there was no doubt as to the fire being purely accidental, and that no objection need be raised as to the payment of claims. The fire is the largest that has yet had to be dealt with in Australia, companies never having suffered so great a loss from a single fire. The experience of companies, so far as Queensland is concerned, is that they have been subjected to losses bordering on a quarter of a million over and above the amount of premiums paid. This is partly owing, in Colonel Freeman's opinion, to the fact that premiums have been brought by severe competition to unduly low rates, being lower here than in the southern colonies. The result will probably be the imposition of higher rates if a uniform tariff can be agreed on. Colonel Freeman considers the present supply of water in case of fire inadequate, and had the river supply not been so easily attainable, the results to adjoining properties must have been far more serious. He thinks the fire brigade did all that lay in their power, but the brigade should be made more effective by levying a rate throughout the city, independent of contributions by insurance companies.

DEATH OF MARSHAL BAZAINE.

[BY CABLE.]
(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

LONDON, SEPT. 24.

The death is announced of Marshal Bazaine.

[Francois Achille Bazaine was born on the 13th of February, 1811. Having finished his studies in the Ecole Polytechnique he entered the army in 1831, served in Africa, and received the Cross of the Legion of Honour on the field of battle in 1836. He was engaged in campaigns in Spain against the Carlists, and returned to Algeria with the rank of captain in 1839. He was chosen at the outbreak of the Russian war to command a brigade of infantry, and during the siege of Sebastopol was honourably mentioned in the despatches of Marshals Canrobert and Pelissier. He subsequently was made a general of division, and commanded the French portion of the expedition, which reduced Kinburn. During the earlier stages of the disastrous war between France and Germany Marshal Bazaine played a conspicuous part. On the capitulation of Sedan he retired to the fortress of Metz, which was invested by the German forces, under Prince Frederick Charles. After a siege of seven weeks, the place capitulated, and on the memorable occasion three marshals, 50 generals, over 6000 officers, and 173,000 men laid down their arms. Marshal Bazaine left Metz on the day of the capitulation on account of his unpopularity, and the insecurity of his life. After staying in England for some months, he was, in August, 1871, summoned to Versailles by the Military Commission of the National Assembly. The commissioners appointed to inquire into the capitulation made during the war brought serious charges against Marshal Bazaine. In consequence of their report, he was handed over to a council of war organised by a special law, and was imprisoned at Versailles during the preliminary examination in May, 1872. He was afterwards tried at the Grand Trianon of Versailles by a court-martial of general officers, presided over by General the Duc d'Aumale. He was charged not only with military incapacity in allowing himself to be blockaded by a nearly equal force in Metz, and in his ultimate capitulation, but also with a treasonable design of making himself, by the aid of his army, and with the connivance of the enemy independent of the Government of National Defence, which had been universally acknowledged by France. The trial commenced on October 6, and ended on December 10, 1873. On the charge of political bad faith, the Court returned no direct verdict; but on the issue whether the Marshal had done all that was required by duty and honour, he was by a unanimous vote, found guilty. The Court condemned the prisoner to degradation and to death, but at the same time recommended him to mercy. Two days afterwards President MacMahon commuted the punishment of death to confinement for 20 years in a fortress, and remitted the ceremony which, according to law, accompanies the sentence of degradation. He was, however, deprived of all his dignities, dismissed from the army, and sent to undergo his sentence at the Ile Sainte Marguerite, a small island just off Cannes, on the Mediterranean coast. Here Bazaine lived for nine months, enjoying a good deal of freedom, and constantly in the society of his wife and children and of his old aide-de-camp, Colonel Villette. On the plea that the health of the children was affected Madame Bazaine left the island and sought an interview with Marshall MacMahon, the President of the Republic, in the hope that he might be induced to allow her husband to pass the rest of his days an exile but not a prisoner. But the President declined to interfere; and it is believed that the coldness of his refusal induced Bazaine to try the chance of flight. On Sunday, August 9, 1874, he passed the evening in conversation with Colonel Villette, and on the following morning a rope was hanging down from the parapet of the fortress, and the prisoner was gone. It afterwards appeared that Madame Bazaine and her cousin had been waiting for him in a boat at the base of the rock. They took him on board a ship which was lying near, and he succeeded in escaping to Italy. He afterwards proceeded to Cologne (August 14), spent a short time in England, and ultimately took up his residence in Madrid, where he arrived November 17, 1874.]

THE STRIKE AT THE NEWCASTLE COLLIERIES.

THE EFFORTS AT MEDIATION.

THE PROSPECT MORE HOPEFUL.

ARRIVAL OF NON-UNION MEN.

[BY TELEGRAPH.]
(FROM OUR REPORTER.)

NEWCASTLE, MONDAY.

The mediation committee have been interviewing the miners' delegates to-day with regard to the acceptance or rejection of the harmonious proposals which they have prepared, and it is understood they have met with a fair amount of success. With regard to the views entertained by the mediation committee, it should be stated in order to remove false impression that the mediation committee have not seen the Delegate Board, but simply interviewed many of its members. The mediators will, however, endeavour to see the majority of the members of the Delegate Board to-morrow, but nothing of a definite nature can be done at the conference owing to the absence of Mr. Curley and Mr. Goundry, who leave for Sydney to-night to be present at a meeting in the Town Hall to-morrow night. The mediation committee will lay their proposals before the delegates for consideration. These proposals, as I have previously stated, are to be a modification of the masters' and the miners' draft agreement, that ought to be acceptable to both sides. It will probably consist in the entire elimination of the masters' maximum standard seam, and also the rejection of the miners' minimum, but it will uphold the masters' minimum of 5ft., which has hitherto prevailed. The various measurements of dirt or deficiency in the standard seam will undergo a good deal of modification. As regards the question of arbitration which is held to be one of the most vital, the mediators think they will be able to frame a proposal pleasing to both sides, inasmuch as the power is delegated to the Chief Justice to nominate a chairman who would be in just the same position as the masters' referee. The six-yard boards question will require further consideration from the masters, and payment for narrow places will be a proviso to suit the miners. In what is held to be an equitable demand the miners must forego the extra payment asked for filling small coal, the prices to be those in use prior to the strike. The subject of cavilling or ballotting at the collieries, as the miners ask, is not supported, and the masters are not expected to agree to it. The matter of 14 days' notice is one that will require to be dealt with in the shape of a local matter, and only to be enforced in the event of the colliery rules being broken. The committee does not think it expedient to admit the clause dealing with eight hours' work in the coal face, owing to the difficulty that might arise with regard to an improper supply of skips. On the whole the members of the mediation committee fully believe that their efforts will prove fruitful. Several of the miners' delegates view the proposal with much favour. The matter has not yet been submitted to the masters in a body, but it is felt that they will eventually accept it.

Preparations on a very large scale were made to-day for the removal of about 4000 tons of small coal from the Newcastle Coal-mining Company. Twenty-seven labourers were brought from Sydney by the morning train, which arrived here at half-past 3. They were met at the railway station by a number of people, who showed their disapproval of their presence by groaning and hooting. The carriage containing these men was attached to a special train with the police and troops, and the whole body was lodged upon the coal mining company's ground shortly after 4 o'clock. A few hundred miners, some women, and large numbers of boys followed the train to the ground and remained for some time hooting the non-union men. The troops were under the command of Colonel Roberts, who, after seeing the pitching of the camp, returned to Newcastle. There were 120 men, besides officers, in the force, and the police in charge of Superintendent Meares, Inspectors Brennan and Lynch numbered 76. Mr. Mair, the police magistrate, who accompanied the force, was obliged to remain in camp. The arrangements were fairly excellent, and the large body was comfortably provided for and housed before darkness set in. There were some complaints from the police respecting the supply of provisions. The non-union labourers were accommodated in a large iron shed, which is used as a forge and workshop. The work of filling the coal will be commenced early to-morrow. Meetings of all the miners' lodges will be held this week to consider the serious nature of the outlook, and something important is expected from them.

MEETING AT LITHGOW.

LITHGOW, MONDAY.

A mass open-air meeting of miners and the general public was held on Saturday, for the purpose of hearing the delegates from the Hunter River Mining Association in reference to the Newcastle strike. The speakers addressed the meeting from the balcony of the Cosmopolitan Hotel. Mr. Ralph Goundry and Mr. Middleby were to have attended, but owing to the dispute at Lambton Mr. J. A. Davidson, Borehole delegate, and Mr. A. Gray, the Hetton delegate, were despatched instead. Mr. Geo. Donald was voted to the chair, and on the platform were all the officers of the Western Miners' Protective Association.

Mr. DAVIDSON apologised for the absence of Mr. Goundry and Mr. Middleby. He then proceeded to explain the cause of the present strike, and said that a strike was an unpleasant thing. The mine owners had persistently ignored the representations of the miners, and had systematically taken every advantage of them, until the situation became unbearable. He explained the existence in the coal of hard stone bands, and the objection of the owners to blasting. The miners had been blamed by a section of the press for interfering with the prosperity of Newcastle, but it were better for Newcastle to perish, than to have its prosperity founded on the slavery of the miners. In 1880 an agreement was entered into with the masters, but twelve months ago the agreement was broken by the masters. The miners asked for a conference, which was granted. The men wanted an agreement, and the owners asked for a fortnight to consider the request. At the expiration of that time the masters said they would meet the propositions in a month, if they found it convenient. The miners then called an aggregate meeting, and resolved to take a ballot as to giving notice to strike. That meeting was entirely private, but the proceedings were made public by the press, and the masters took umbrage. It was decided at that meeting that unless a settlement was arrived at within a fortnight 14 days' notice of strike should be given. Mr. Gregson, on behalf of the masters, refused to treat with the men, or show a copy of the agreement which had been drawn up by his side, unless the decision of the aggregate meeting was withdrawn. Then came the historic citizens' deputation. Canon Selwyn, in the character of a peacemaker, brought a sealed document, and asked the miners to accept it. They naturally declined to do so. Then came Mr. Brunker's mediation, and the contents of the sealed document were made known. When this was done it was seen that the miners had acted wisely in refusing to have anything to do with the agreement. Afterwards there came the conference between both sides. At that conference Mr. Gregson took up a dictatorial attitude, and claimed 7ft. for a maximum seam of coal, and he refused to concede anything, while he asked the miners to withdraw their stipulation of 5ft. for the minimum seam. In the 11th clause of the agreement offered by the masters it was provided that 14 days' notice on either side should terminate employment. That looked fair enough, but it would soon lead to the dismissal of all the union officers, therefore they refused that.

Mr. GRAY, on coming forward, was greeted with cheers. He said that the Newcastle mine owners had for 12 months been trying to reduce the hewing rates. They never allowed the miners any say in fixing the rates. It was to be 4s. 2d. per ton or nothing. The men tried hard to get a general agreement, and at the conference submitted one similar to that at Lambton. That was one the masters wanted a fortnight to consider. He spoke of the action of the Government in sending a detachment of soldiers and a Nordenfeldt gun to accomplish the loading of 50 tons of small coal.

Mr. PENNA, President of the Lithgow Union, proposed,—"That, after hearing the statement of Messrs. Gray and Davidson, this meeting tenders its hearty sympathy with the Hunter River miners in the present struggle, and pledges itself to continue its moral and pecuniary support until the cessation of the dispute."

Mr. JOHN OWENS, the miners' secretary, seconded the motion, which was carried unanimously.

Mr. THOMAS GRUBY moved,—"That this meeting desires to express its indignation at the action of Sir Henry Parkes in despatching troops to Newcastle, and considers such an action unwarrantable, and calculated to incite the miners to a breach of the peace."

The motion was seconded and carried.

ADELAIDE, MONDAY.

The Ironworkers Assistants' Society at Port Adelaide have decided to help the Newcastle miners, and have made a levy of 1s. per week on all working members. With but one or two exceptions, all labour societies in and around Port Adelaide are now sending forward subscriptions. The captain of the ketch Mayflower complains that the Seamen's Union demand he shall carry two Union seamen paying them £6 and £7 per month, while one man is ample and other wood crafts are allowed to carry boys. To satisfy the Union, the captain carried two men for one trip, and working expenses reduced his share in the voyage to only £1 10s. 4d., including wear and tear of craft, provisions, and his own labour.

The steamer Hesketh arrived this morning, with 618 tons of Brisbane coal, for the railway. The barque Glen Huntley arrived from Brisbane, with 800 tons of coal, consigned to the Gas Company. The barque William Turner, from Sydney, also arrived with coal, and is awaiting orders.

FIRE AT WOLLONGONG.

[BY TELEGRAPH.]
(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

WOLLONGONG, MONDAY.

A fire occurred here on Sunday morning which resulted in the destruction of Mr. Kop's general store, Mr. Beatson's private residence, shop, and Mr. Lipscombe's, solicitor, office. Immediately after the alarm was raised a large number of townspeople congregated to render assistance, but nothing could be done to save the store. Luckily all papers in Mr. Lipscombe's office were safely removed. The fire-engine was soon on the ground; but was found unworkable, though there was a fair supply of water. A small hand-engine, belonging to Mr. W. Wiley, was also brought into requisition, and did good service in saving Mr. Beatson's house, which had caught fire along the roof, the whole of the windows being broken. The value of the stock in Mr. Kop's store was estimated at about £3000; it is said to be insured for about £1700, but the resident partner is not certain as to the amount of the insurance. Mr. Lipscombe's loss is confined to his office furniture. The premises are the property of Mr. George Hewlett, and are said to be insured with the Commercial for £800. Mr. Beatson's loss, including damage to furniture from removal and water, is roughly estimated at about £500; his premises are said to be covered by insurance in the Mercantile. Several townsmen, including the Mayor, Alderman Cochrane, and Mr. O'Brien, of the Alfred Hotel, Mr. Gavin, and many others, were busy all night doing all in their power to subdue the fire. Fortunately there was heavy rain falling at the time, with almost calm weather, otherwise the whole block of buildings, including Mr. Bright's branch store, would have been in great danger. Yesterday morning about 10 o'clock, a fireman belonging to the steam-tug Otter got the fire-engine to work, played on the debris, and placed it beyond danger. The fire-engine, which is of an antiquated pattern, took 20 men to work it. Some time ago a fire-brigade was established, but the small amount of support accorded disheartened the men, and the brigade was broken up. However, several of the old members were actively engaged in lending valuable assistance. Many insurance companies have risks in the town, but there does not appear to have been much unanimity in supporting the brigade.

INSUBORDINATION ON BOARD SHIP.

[BY TELEGRAPH.]
(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

NEWCASTLE, MONDAY.

Ten articled seamen belonging to the Swedish barque Otto Lina were brought up in the police court this morning on a charge of combining to disobey lawful commands on the 21st instant. The evidence of Captain Turnstrum and the chief officer showed that the men had refused to perform their duty. The defence was that the captain threatened the men with a revolver, and that the men left off work with a view of seeing the Swedish consul, to be able to make complaints as to the captain's treatment of them. The bench found them guilty, and sentenced them to one hour's imprisonment. A feature in connection with the case was that it was rumoured through the town on Saturday that this crew belonged to the Federated Seamen's Union, and had struck work, refusing to take in small coal sent to the ship by non-unionists, consequently a large number of miners attended the court to cheer the sailors, but when they found out their mistake, they soon cleared away.

THE INSPECTION OF LIGHTHOUSES.

[BY TELEGRAPH.]
(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

YARRAHAPPINI, SEPT. 24.

The steamer Bega, with the Marine Board, arrived off the Tweed River bar at 5 p.m. on Saturday. A strong N.E. wind was blowing, and a tug could not come out; there was too much sea on, so communication with the pilot was made by signals. The Bega then proceeded southward, and arrived off the Bellinger River at 9 a.m. on Sunday. The bar was crossed in the tug Harrington, and the Board made a short stay. The Nambucca River was reached at 10.30 a.m. The Board crossed the bar out in the tug Volunteer. The steamer Bega then resumed her voyage and arrived at Trial Bay during the afternoon. This morning the Board will inspect the Macleay pilot station, and a small party will visit the site already selected two years since for the lighthouse at Smoky Cape, after which the Bega will leave for Port Stephens, via Camden Haven and Manning River. Fine weather has been experienced, and all are well.

TRADES AND INDUSTRIAL HALL ASSOCIATION.

A complimentary banquet, tendered by the land trustees of the Trades and Industrial Hall Association to celebrate the opening of the temporary building, was given at the new rooms of the association last evening. Over 70 guests were present, and 33 trade societies were represented. Mr. J. E. West occupied the chair, and Messrs. J. Garrard, M.L.A., and J. R. Talbot, president of the Trades and Labour Council, acted as vice-chairmen. Among those present were the Hon. F. Abigail (Minister for Mines), Messrs. T. M. Slattery, J. Garrard, D. O'Connor, W. F. Schey, Ms.L.A., and others. The catering by Eccles was excellent. After the usual loyal and patriotic toasts,

Mr. J. R. TALBOT proposed "The Parliament of New South Wales." He referred to the fact that many of the members of Parliament had sprung from the industrial classes or from the ranks of labour. They had reason to be proud of them, as they were a credit to the country.

Mr. SLATTERY, in response to the toast, said that although he did not represent a labour constituency, yet during the eight years he had had the honour of sitting in Parliament he had on every occasion given a vote for the advancement of the great labour interests of the country. Speaking, as he did, to the representative men of the various trades and labour organisations of the city, he need scarcely point out the great power they exercised in controlling the destinies of the country. They and those they represented occupied, in his judgment, the most distinguished of all public positions because by their immense organisation and voting power they made and unmade Parliaments, and thereby made and unmade Ministries. They appeared to him to have exercised their great power with prudence and judgment in the best interests of the people.

Mr. O'CONNOR, M.L.A., and Mr. SCHEY, M.L.A., also responded.

Mr. ABIGAIL then proposed "The Trades and Industrial Hall Association." He said that he wished success to the Trades Hall with all his heart. He hoped that it would be the place where the councils of those entrusted with the leadership in the ranks of labour would lead to a wise consideration of the many questions that so often arose between labour and capital. For if it were true that a country was made by the acts of its public men, much more was it true that the cause of labour would be made or marred by the action of those who were in the position of leading the wage-earning classes. There were those who lifted up their hands in horror at the thought of trade unions, and predicted all sorts of dreadful things from them. His hope was that, with the advance of education and the acquisition of fuller knowledge, they would be more of a benefit than a curse, and he joined heartily with them in the opening of what he ventured to hope would be a hall of learning. He took it that it was not of more importance to all of us than it was to every man who had learned to know that he had an interest in the moral and social elevation, the peace, happiness, and general improvement of his fellows. Not even they, nor those who within these walls hoped to taste its usefulness and put it to the proof, had greater reasons to exult in its establishment, or to hope that it might thrive and prosper, than scores of others at a distance, who, whether consciously or not, had in the principles of its success and bright example a deep and personal concern. He hoped they would have cheerful rooms, pleasant and instructive lectures, an improving library with volumes from the best of writers, also classes for the study of the numerous subjects that tended to improve every step in life, so that ignorance, the great power of crime, might be chased away. The advantages to be derived from such an institution if properly managed were of such a positive character for good that he felt delighted at seeing the start. They lived in a land where the great industrial classes were clothed with great powers and privileges, and he urged them to play well their part in the great labour drama, so that those who came after them when reaping the benefits of their wise councils would cherish and bless their memories. (Loud applause.)

Mr. W. FERRIER, secretary, responded to the toast. He said in reference to the early labours of the committee that their object had been to endeavour by some means to formulate a scheme for putting up in Sydney a structure they might call a Trades Hall. The committee went accordingly to the Government of the day, and that Government received them at first very favourably. The first deputation in connection with the subject was introduced by Mr. Henry Copeland, who, he was sorry to see, was not there that night. (Hear, hear.) Subsequently the matter was brought before Parliament, and the land upon which the present structure was erected was obtained. Shortly after that a wave of depression swept over the colony, and the committee found that the various societies were not in a position to immediately put their funds into the project to erect a suitable building. However, by degrees they got the money, and the result was what they saw there that night. (Applause.) The committee thought that the best way to raise funds was by issuing debentures. There was a way, however, by which funds could hereafter be raised which hitherto had not been adopted. If this was once brought into operation they would be able to get their permanent structure almost at once. If the eight-hour trades organisations of Sydney would say that they would give the surplus of the Eight-hour Demonstration to complete the building the thing would become an accomplished fact. (Applause.) The chairman, treasurer, and other officers of the committee were there that night—(applause)—and he was proud to say that they had always been able to work harmoniously together. The company was started with 15,000 shares, to be taken up by the various societies and others. Up to the present time, the total number of shares taken up by trades societies was 2451, while the number held by the executive committee was 505. There were also private shareholders, who had taken up 450 shares, which brought up the total to 3406 shares. He had no doubt but that if a portion of the property held by the association were put into the hands of someone who was capable of selling city property, that £11,000 or £12,000 could be realised. With regard to the present financial condition of the association, he might say that the balance from the last half-year ending in June was £862, income to date £132, total income £995. The expenditure had been in all £665, which left a balance of £329, and as there was a further sum to be received from shares, the total amount would be over £1265. There were still 19 societies outside of the committee, and as yet unaffiliated. Now, if those 19 societies were to join in the work, he was sure that in a very short time they would be able to rear their permanent building. Mr. Smeadley had been very successful in his work in connection with the architectural work of the permanent building. The cost of that building would be about £15,000, of which about £3000 had been spent already. With a little self-sacrifice the designs for the permanent building could be carried out; then they would have a suitable place for all of the societies to hold their meetings in. At present they could only provide for one-third of the societies. They all knew of the Labour Bureau, which had been started some time ago by Government. When trades society men got out of work, however, they would rather tramp the whole country over for employment than go to that place. Now the association wanted to make men more independent, and to register their names at their own hall. (Applause.) The hall would be also beneficial in providing a place for men to resort to for reading and resting when on their way from work. In conclusion, he urged all trades unionists to take an active interest in the association.

Mr. J. GARRARD, M.L.A., proposed "The Visitors." Being one of the land trustees of the association, he was there to a certain extent as a host. He heartily welcomed those whose health he was about to propose. He referred to the Trades Hall in Melbourne, which was one of the best halls in that city for the various societies to meet in. This building was largely the result of the creation of a fund from the surplus of the Eight Hours Demonstration. He approved of some such plan here in Sydney. He had been a trades unionist for more than 20 years, and was one still. He ventured to ask those men who had an adverse opinion of the existing strike—he would ask them to hear what the men had to say on the subject. They were sometimes told that trades unions were formed for getting up strikes and disputes. ("No, no.") He said that there had been more disputes averted by the timely interference of the trades unions than was generally credited.

The toasts of "The Ladies" and "The Press" were then proposed and responded to, and the proceedings were brought to a close.

PUBLICATIONS RECEIVED.

We have received a pamphlet from Messrs. George Robertson and Co., entitled Divorce Extension Justified, by "An Irish Anglican," whose name appears at the end of the preface as Hanbury C. Geoghegan, a Melbourne solicitor. The pamphlet is written to further Mr. Shiel's Divorce Bill in the Victorian Assembly, and is addressed to the Anglican Synods of New South Wales and Victoria. It enumerates the causes which the bill proposes should be deemed sufficient to procure a divorce, and traverses the objections of the New South Wales Synod, founded on the local bill's antagonism to the Christian faith, its hostility to moral and public welfare, opposition to the conscientious convictions of Christians and to the present tenor of the law of England and the colonies. Some similar resolutions were adopted by the Synod in Melbourne, and the writer discusses the position thus taken up in its historical and social aspects, and extracts freely from Sir Alfred Stephen's published remarks on the subject of divorce.

The Journal and Proceedings of the Royal Society of New South Wales. Part I of volume 22 contains the President's Anniversary Address, by C. G. Wilkinson, F.G.S.; and papers on Forest Conservation, by W. E. Abbott; on the increasing magnitude of the Eta Argo, by H. C. Russell, mineral works in the Northern districts, with an illustrative plate, by D. G. Porter; a plan of easing railway curves, by W. Shellshear, with one plate; and a report of proceedings, donations, &c.

Horrocks's Handy Guide to the Blue Mountains and Caves of New South Wales contains some tourists' notes and information respecting hotel charges and the show-places at the mountains and at the caves, with a number of local advertisements. The times of trains and rates of fares are also given, and data as to localities, routes, and other matters likely to be of interest to visitors.

MEETINGS.

WATER AND SEWERAGE BOARD.

The weekly meeting of the Water and Sewerage Board was held at the offices, George-street North, yesterday afternoon, the president (Mr. T. Rowe) in the chair. Present—Messrs. B. Palmer (vice-president), W. C. Bennett, J. D. Young, G. W. Lander, J. Graham, and R. Bloxsome (secretary).

MISCELLANEOUS.

An abstract of moneys received by the department up to date showed that the total sum amounted to £36,695 2s. 11d. On the application of the municipal council of Concord, it was decided to erect a standpipe near the Gas Company's works at Mortlake, Parramatta River. A letter was received from the board's solicitor (Mr. Williams) respecting the lease of Mr. William Cooper's land at Botany, comprised in Terry and Winder's grant, which it is understood has been sold to a syndicate. It was decided to refer the whole matter to counsel for an opinion as to the position of the board in regard to the lease between Mr. Cooper and the City Council, in order to ascertain whether the agreement under the lease still holds good. It was also resolved to communicate with the Harbours and Rivers Department, in order to consider whether it would be advisable to abandon the land in question. A letter from the secretary to the Master Plumbers' Association in reference to the regulations for the guidance of plumbers, was dealt with by the board, and the report of the board engineer in regard to the same was adopted. A copy of the approved regulations will be forwarded to the Master Plumbers' Association. A communication was received from the Harbours and Rivers Department, having reference to the construction of a penstock, or sluice-gate, in connection with the Campbelltown water supply. The board decided that as the canal was still in charge of the Harbours and Rivers Department, it would be well for that body to carry out the work in question. The report of the board engineer in reference to the disposal of the wrought-iron pipes of the temporary scheme of water supply was then brought up. The board ultimately decided to dispose of the 2in. pipes at public auction. These pipes will be sold in lengths to suit purchasers.

RETICULATION.

The board decided to lay mains—pipes for which are already available—in the following streets:—O'Neill-street, Leichhardt, from Justin-street to Lamb-street; M'Evoy-street, Waterloo, from Elizabeth-street eastwards, 80 yards; Burleigh-street, Burwood, from William-street to the railway; Charles-street, Burwood, from Wyalong-street to Brooklyn-street; Fitzroy-street, Burwood, from Ethel-street to Wallace-street; Albany-road, Petersham, from Douglas-street to the end of that thoroughfare; Arthur-street, East St. Leonards, from Junction-street southwards, 110 yards. The estimated cost of the whole of the work is £474 12s.

STATE CHILDREN'S RELIEF BOARD.

The monthly meeting of the State Children's Relief Board was held at the Central Home, Paddington, yesterday afternoon. Present: The Hon. Arthur Renwick, M.L.C. (president), Mrs. Garran, Mrs. Goodlet, Mrs. Jefferis. The usual statistical table showed that there were 2077 children under the control of the board, distributed as follows:—Paid for as boarders, 1309; apprenticed, 500; adopted, 127; boarded out without payment, 17; in cottage homes, 99; the remainder being at ordinary service. 40 children had been boarded out during the month and 15 discharged to parents. At the date of last meeting there were three children in the depot; 58 had been admitted during the month and 56 discharged, leaving five inmates yesterday. Accounts amounting to £4485 for the maintenance of the boarded-out children and inmates of the cottage homes, and for the general purposes of the department during the quarter ending September 30, were passed for payment. Authority was given for the apprenticeship of 26 boys and 2 girls. 10 applications from parents for the restoration of children were received. Eight were granted and two refused on the ground that the applicants were of improper character. The following new lady visitors were appointed:—Mrs. E. Smith, Branxton; Mrs. English, Broughton Creek; Miss Harford, Bringelly; Mrs. Mayne, Greendale; Mrs. G. Heighway, Gerringong.

THE UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY.

A special meeting of the Senate of Sydney University was held yesterday, at the rooms of the Royal Society, to consider a report from Convocation, containing the following resolutions:—"1. That the Fellows of the Senate should be elected for a definite term of years, and not for life, but should be eligible for re-election. 2. That the professors should not be ex-officio Fellows of the Senate, but should be eligible for election. 3. That Convocation, other than for the election of Fellows, should be summoned at least twice in each year. 4. That Convocation should be empowered to originate any statute or regulation, and recommend the same for the approval of the Senate. 5. That the Senate be requested to obtain the necessary authority from Parliament for giving effect to the preceding resolutions."

There were present—the Chancellor (the Hon. Sir W. M. Manning), the Vice-Chancellor (Dr. H. N. MacLaurin), Mr. District Court Judge Backhouse, the Hon. E. Barton, Mr. Thomas Butler, Professor Gurney, Dr. P. Sydney Jones, Professor Liversidge, the Hon. William Macleay, Mr. Alexander Oliver, Mr. H. C. Russell, Professor Scott, Professor Stephens, Professor Stuart, and his Hon. Mr. Justice Windeyer.

It having been decided that the resolutions should be considered seriatim, Mr. Justice Windeyer moved, and Professor Stephens seconded, the adoption of clause 1,—"That the Fellows of the Senate should be elected for a definite term of years, and not for life; but should be eligible for re-election." The Vice-Chancellor moved as an amendment,—"That the words 'should hold office' be substituted for the words 'should be elected,'" with the object of applying the principle of the resolution to present members of the Senate. The amendment was seconded by Judge Backhouse. Upon being put to the meeting it was negatived by the casting vote of the Chancellor. The original motion was carried unanimously. Clause 2—"That the professors should not be ex officio Fellows of the Senate, but should be eligible for election." After some discussion the Vice-Chancellor moved,—"That a committee be appointed to consider and report to the Senate upon clause 2 of the Report of Convocation, and as to the best mode of making use of the services of the teaching staff in the government of the University; that such committee consist of the Chancellor, the Vice-Chancellor, Mr. Alexander Oliver, Dr. P. Sydney Jones, the Hon. William Macleay, Mr. H. C. Russell, the Hon. E. Barton, Mr. Justice Windeyer, and Mr. C. B. Stephen." The motion was seconded by Mr. Butler, and carried unanimously. Clause 3—"That convocation other than for the election of Fellows should be summoned at least twice in each year"—was adopted unanimously. Mr. Justice Windeyer moved, and Judge Backhouse seconded, the adoption of clause 4,—"That Convocation should be empowered to originate any statute or regulation, and recommend the same for the approval of the Senate." The Vice-Chancellor moved, and Mr. Oliver seconded,—"That Convocation be informed that the Senate will be at all times ready to receive and carefully consider any recommendations for by-laws or regulations sent up by Convocation." The amendment was carried on the casting vote of the Chancellor. The consideration of clause 5 was postponed until after the consideration of the report of the committee appointed to report in reference to clause 2, and the consideration in reference to clause 1 of the future status of existing Fellows.

RECLAMATION OF WHITE BAY.

A public meeting for the consideration of the question of the reclamation of White Bay was held in the Balmain Town Hall last night. There were only about 50 or 60 people present. Alderman H. Buchanan (the Mayor) occupied the chair. He said that he had called the meeting in answer to a requisition signed by at least 50 or 60 residents of Balmain, and he was sorry to say that Alderman Clymer was the only requisitionist who was present. He thought this did not speak well for the footballers and cricketers, who wanted a recreation ground. He was convinced of the necessity for the work. He thought, considering the small attendance, the best thing to do was to leave the matter in the hands of the local members, Messrs. Hawthorne and F. J. Smith. Alderman Burns moved,—"That the Mayor and aldermen, in conjunction with the members of the district, wait upon the Government and urge upon them the necessity of reclaiming White Bay." He thought that the reclamation was in the interests of the health of the people, which was the principal thing for any governing body to do. Alderman Clymer, in seconding the motion, said he thought the reclamation was a very requisite work. He knew that some seven or eight years ago a sum of money was placed upon the Estimates for the reclamation of this important part of the harbour. He knew they had shrewd men at the head of affairs at the present time who would recognise the necessity of the request. The Government knew that the Balmain public were modest in their demands and did not desire anything more than justice. It was a step in the right direction, and they were entitled to get it. Mr. J. S. Hawthorne also spoke in favour of the resolution, which was put and carried unanimously.

A meeting of the committee who are organising feasts and entertainments for the inmates of destitute asylums was held last evening at the tea rooms of Mr. Quong Tart, Sydney Arcade. Mr. H. Taylor, M.L.A., occupied the chair. A donation of £50 was received from Mr. James Kidman. Donations in kind will also be received from Messrs. Boylson, Gillespie, and Condy. It was also reported that the Minister for Works had kindly consented to allow supplies for these feasts to be carried free by rail. The next feast will take place at Liverpool on Saturday, 29th instant. The following letter has been received from Captain Neitenstein, commander and superintendent of the Vernon:—"I have the honour, on behalf of the boys and officers of the Vernon, to most respectfully express to the feast committee, and to the ladies and gentlemen who assisted at the concert, the very great gratitude we all feel for the kindness displayed on Friday. That day will be long remembered by the lads as an important and pleasurable event in their lives. Personally, I cannot too sufficiently express my thanks and sincere appreciation of the generous kindness and practical sympathy, so heartily shown."

The weekly meeting of the Woollahra Literary and Debating Society was held in the Oddfellows' Hall, Queen-street, last Wednesday evening, when a public debate took place between the members; Mr. T. George was in the chair. The subject was, "That the policy of protection is the most suitable for the colony of New South Wales." Mr. Clarke, as leader of the protectionist interest, opened the debate, and was vigorously supported by Messrs. Poole, Oakes, and Harriss. The opposition was led in by Mr. Brown, and he was followed by Messrs. Howlett, M. Shaw, and Gregory. The motion, on being put before the meeting, was declared lost, being defeated by four votes. The meeting then adjourned.

AMUSEMENTS.

DRAMATIC REUNION.

Last night one of the pleasant monthly reunions, which for the past 14 months have been in existence under the auspices of the Government Printing Office Dramatic and Musical Society, took place in the New Masonic Hall, Castlereagh-street. There was a large audience. The object of these reunions is twofold—first, to promote harmony and good feeling among the employees of the Government Printing Office who are dramatically or musically inclined; and next, to increase a fund which has been established for the relief of those members of the craft who by misfortune and distress have become incapacitated for labour. The orchestra, under the direction of Mons. Albin Villeval, contributed three items—Planquette's overture, "Nell Gwynne;" the new waltz, "Merlino;" and that tuneful composition by Otto Roeder, "The Sultan of Mocha" valse. Another part, which occupied considerable time, and evoked no small amount of amusement, was the performance of Gordon's comedy "Dearest Mamma." The characters were sustained by Messrs. H. J. Solloway, W. H. Levey, W. Lensley, W. Watkins, Miss C. Layton, Miss M. Cruickshank, and Miss Eva Clements. After the first interval a miscellaneous selection comprising eleven numbers was performed, the contributors as vocalists being Messrs. H. Maxwell, T. Bassetti, A. Edward, R. Lutton, Mrs. Young, Miss Dark, and Miss A. Lamont. Miss K. Fitzsimons recited "The Curfew Bell," and Mr. E. J. Beaumann played several selections from "Faust" as a violin solo. The programme concluded with the sketch "Moonlight Revels on the Levee," in which the principal parts were taken by Messrs. H. A. Ferguson, R. Donaldson, and W. J. Rogers. The stage management was in the hands of Mr. W. H. Levey, and Mr. S. W. Austin officiated as accompanist.

THE ALHAMBRA.

A change of programme was presented at the Alhambra Music-hall yesterday evening. There was, as usual, a large and appreciative audience. The stage was occupied by a company whose popularity is evidenced by the fact that they are in a season so protracted that it has reached its fourth year. The first part of the entertainment consisted of minstrelsy, and included the songs "The beacon that lights me home," "Oh, gently breathe," and "Old red cradle," all of which were excellently rendered. The second part of the entertainment embraced a clog dance by Messrs. Delowery, Craydon, and Holland, a sailor's hornpipe by Miss Edith Wilson, performances by Japanese, and an extravaganza entitled "The Beauty and the Brigands," in which most of the members of the company took part. Applause was loud and frequent throughout the entertainment.

ROYAL STANDARD THEATRE.

Last night the play of "The Outcasts," which is founded upon Miss Braddon's novel "Henry Dunbar," was produced at the Royal Standard Theatre by Miss Alice Norton's and Mr. H. C. Sidney's company. There was a good and appreciative audience, and the play ran with smoothness from beginning to end. The interest centres around the fortunes of the outcast Wentworth, who, after killing Henry Dunbar, assumes his personality. The secret of his life is unfolded to his daughter in the first act; in the second the detectives are on his track; in the third he is preparing for flight; and in the end he is captured, not by the police, but by death. The working out of the plot presents many opportunities for good acting. As Henry Dunbar Mr. H. C. Sidney played with power and ability, whilst Mr. Frank Gerald, who impersonated the Major with several aliases, threw the requisite amount of fun and humour into the part, and assisted to render more cheerful the unravelling of a somewhat melancholy story. Margaret Wentworth, in the hands of Miss Alice Norton, was in safe keeping. There was a good deal for her to do, and it was always done well. She was very strong in parts, and very pathetic where necessary. Miss Ethel Grey, as Laura Dunbar, had a rôle to which she was well suited, and to which she did full justice. Her exposition of the character of the daughter of the real Dunbar was an exceedingly graceful and happy one, and met with the thorough appreciation of the audience. Miss Nelly Simmons made a lively servant as Mary Madden. Mr. Stilling Duff did well in the part of Clement Austin. Mr. Harry Power, who was the detective, was constantly on the various scenes, and the other characters were well provided for. "The Outcast" ought certainly to have a very successful run.

SKATING RINKS.

A benefit was tendered to Mr. K. A. Skinner at the Elite Skating Rink last evening. There was a large attendance of the patrons of the rink. The programme contained, in addition to the usual attractions, a representation by Mr. Aginton of the New York dude learning to skate. A very closely contested two-mile race took place between Mr. Skinner and Mr. Griffin, in which the latter won by about a yard, the time recorded being 6 minutes 50 seconds. Mr. Skinner was the recipient of a testimonial from the employees at the Toowoomba, Newcastle, Goulburn, and Sydney rinks of the Elite Company. To-night there is to be a grand masquerade, carnival, and ball at the Crystal Palace Rink. Brilliant illuminations and numerous attractions are announced.

A return entertainment was tendered to the Mayor of Sydney (Mr. John Harris) by the members of the Town Hall Dialectic Association last evening, in the vestibule of the Town Hall. There was a large attendance of members and their friends, and an excellent programme of amusement was provided. The first part was devoted to songs and recitations, all of which were well rendered; after which several scenes from Shakespeare's play of "Hamlet" were given, the following gentlemen appearing in the different characters:—Hamlet, Mr. R. W. Richards; the ghost, Mr. G. M'Rae; Horatio, Mr. W. G. Layton; Marcellus, Mr. J. R. Palmer; Bernardo Mr. E. B. Paton. After 10 o'clock the floor was cleared and dancing was begun and kept up for several hours. Refreshments were served to the company in one of the large rooms upstairs. The gathering was a most enjoyable one, and was as successful as its most ardent promoters could have desired.

A concert will be given in the Y. M. C. A. Hall to-morrow evening by the pupils of William-street Public school, assisted by several well-known artists, including Mrs. J. A. Dobbie, Mrs. Innes, and Messrs. W. Walshe, D. Clancy, A. Burness, and A. Edward. Miss Naylor will act as accompanist.

MELBOURNE CENTENNIAL EXHIBITION.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD.

Sir,—Permit me to explain, as briefly as possible, the facts of the case with reference to the wool trophy, referred to by your Melbourne correspondent in to-day's issue. It was never contemplated when I allotted space in the New South Wales Court for the display of Australian wools that any other colony except New South Wales should bear the expense of the erection of a wool trophy, and nothing was said about it until I had prepared and approved of a plan. A desire was then expressed by the Melbourne Commission to bear half the expense, and a new plan, at my instance, was designed, of which I also approved. In it there were no localising inscriptions whatever. The trophy was completed, but after a temporary visit to Sydney, on my return to Melbourne to my surprise I found that some six or seven such inscriptions had been placed on the trophy without my consent. I therefore ordered the removal of one which I deemed objectionable, substituting for it the words "Wool Trophy," allowing the others to remain. No objection was urged to this while I remained in Melbourne; but after I had again visited Sydney some Victorian officials replaced the boards in their former positions, notwithstanding that the Executive Vice-President (Colonel Sargood) had given directions that the point at issue should remain in abeyance until my return to Melbourne. On Thursday last I was invited to be present at a conference of the Animals' Products Committee, when the subject was discussed in a most amicable manner, and a satisfactory compromise effected. The matter, to my mind, was of too trifling a nature to disturb the friendly relations which had hitherto existed between the Melbourne Commission and myself.

In reference to the last paragraph in your correspondent's letter, respecting the alleged non-payment of certain accounts, I am at a loss to understand why accounts in dispute, and which are deemed to be exorbitant, should possibly "assume the nature of a public scandal." The case of the contractor Hibble is the most prominent of the very few under consideration. Mr. Hibble has already been paid by me £800—eight hundred pounds—and I could not conscientiously recommend the payment of any further sum of money until his work has been thoroughly examined and measured, and with that view some weeks ago I laid the facts of the case before the Government, and applied that the Colonial Architect and one of his officers should be sent to Melbourne to make the necessary investigation. The Colonial Secretary, however, could not spare these officers at present, but recently wrote to the Honorable Duncan Gillies, the Premier of Victoria, requesting him to lend an officer for the purpose, and to which he has most courteously consented. On Friday last while in Melbourne I had interviews with the Premier, the Minister for Works, and the senior architect of Melbourne on the subject. I am now engaged in Sydney in obtaining important information for the latter, which when ready will enable him to arrive at a just conclusion as to the disputed account. I trust this explanation will prove satisfactory, as it will be seen I have no motive whatever for acting as I have done except in the protection of the public interests.

I am, &c.,
R. BURDETT SMITH,
Executive Commissioner for N. S. W., C. I. E. M.
Sydney, 24th September.

PUNCTUATION.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD.

Sir,—Now that unfavourable criticism on University spelling, Post Office carvings, &c., may be said to be the order of the day, allow me to say a word on punctuation. In one of our principal streets, not quite half a league from Haymarket, there stands a sightly block of buildings, the name of which ends in SS, and to mark the possessive case an apostrophe or third S is added, thereby causing quite a curiosity in the neighbourhood. Not, perhaps, so much on account of the new grammatical production, as the fact that according to report the ghost of Lindley Murray is nightly seen hovering about the locality, gazing in wonderment at the scholarly work of art.

I am, &c.,

SHIPPING REPORTS, &c.

CUSTOM HOUSE.—Entered Outwards, September 24: Oonah (s.), 886 tons, Captain H. Bennison, for Hobart, via Eden; Investigator (s.), 345 tons, Captain P. Barry, for Adelaide, via Newcastle and Wollongong; Ophir, barque, 778 tons, Captain C. J. Brugniere, for San Francisco; Harold, barque, 1299 tons, Captain King, for San Francisco, via Newcastle; Rodondo (s.), 715 tons, Captain W. Seymour, for Melbourne; Age (s.), 1493 tons, Captain L. Tindal, for Melbourne; Gambier (s.), 1030 tons, Captain R. R. Brown, for Brisbane.

The steamer Richmond Hill will this morning be taken for a trial trip in the harbour for the purpose of proving the thoroughly satisfactory manner in which the vessel's machinery has been placed since her arrival in port.

The barque Devonport is this evening to be towed from below Garden Island to a berth at the Anchor Wharf, Darling Harbour.

The barque Fanny Tucker is to-day to be moved from Anderson's Dock to the stream.

The barque Parsee was yesterday taken from the Baltic Wharf to the Atlas Dock.

The steamer Wilcannia returned from Mort's Dock, whither she was taken on Saturday, to her berth at the Central Wharf, yesterday.

The ship Derwent will to-day be moved from the stream to dock for the purpose of being cleaned and painted.

The following passengers, including through passengers from Noumea, are booked by the M.M. Company's steamer Sydney, Captain Flaschi, to leave the Circular Quay at noon to-day:—For Marseilles: Mr. and Mrs. Dulur and child, Mrs. Romonny, Mrs. M'Millan, Dr. Clavel, Messrs. Menard, M. Lacoste, J. Briand, P. Le Roi, C. Raith, Deslebues, Barillon, Ode la Rosiere, Panier, Guerin, Bertin, Dur, J. Vilhem, Mazier, J. H. Marion, F. Silvestre, J. Eastel, S. Taniste, A. Bovet, T. Boissar, G. Evanbest, Guillaume, Dufour, Breans, and 30 in the steerage. For Mauritius: Mr. J. H. Creagh. For Melbourne: Mr. and Mrs. Tyler, Dr. A. Bowen.

The steamer Rosedale crossed the Manning bar at 10.45 a.m. on the 23rd instant, and arrived in Sydney at 2.15 a.m. on the 24th instant. Experienced squally weather and smooth sea throughout the passage. Cargo: 102 bags maize, 35 hides, 169 pigs, 6 coops poultry, 48 cases eggs, 4 bags bacon, 16 bags oysters, 3 cases fish, and 20 packages sundries.

The steamer Rodondo left Brisbane at 6.30 p.m. on the 22nd instant and arrived in Sydney at 3 a.m. on the 24th instant. Experienced strong N.W. wind and clear weather to noon of 23rd; then baffling airs and light rain, dull hazy weather, and thunder and lightning to midnight of same date; thence strong N.W. wind and clear weather to arrival.

The steamer Eurimbla left Brisbane at 6.15 p.m. on the 22nd instant, and entered the Heads at 11.15 a.m. on the 24th instant. Experienced moderate N. and W. winds with fine weather throughout.

The steamer Mount Kembla returned to port yesterday from Melbourne. She left at 7 p.m. on the 21st instant and entered the Heads at 5 p.m. on the 24th instant. Experienced variable winds and heavy rain, with lightning to port.

The barque Alexander Laurence, 104 days out from Liverpool to Sydney, was spoken by the s.s. Mount Kembla on Sunday, 20 miles S.W. of Gabo Island.

The M. M. Company's steamer Tanais, the vessel running the branch service to Noumea, arrived in port yesterday from New Caledonia, after a very fair weather trip, and anchored in Neutral Bay. The Tanais has brought among her passengers 10 seamen belonging to the French barque Theodor Ducose, which it will be remembered was burnt while lying at Tahiti.

The steamer Rotomahana took her departure from Russell on the 20th instant at 1 p.m., rounded the North Cape at 8.45 p.m. the same day, and arrived in port at 9 p.m. on the 24th. Experienced moderate and variable westerly winds throughout the passage.

The steamer Warrego left Melbourne at 9 p.m. on the 22nd instant, rounded Wilson's Promontory at 7.45 a.m. on the 23rd, and entered the Heads at 8.15 p.m. on the 24th instant. Experienced light variable winds and dull showery weather the whole way.

The American barque Adam W. Spies arrived yesterday from Boston with a full cargo of general merchandise in tow of the steamer Glenelg, and anchored below Garden Island. The Adam W. Spies has not been here for some three years, but during that interval she has not been idle. Captain Field has brought his vessel into port in fine condition for she is very clean, fore and aft. The barque left Boston on June 20 with favourable winds to picking up the N.E. trades, which were found in 27° North. The trades were also good, and did not give out until 8° North was reached. Variable winds followed to 3° N. where the S.E. trades were found. The equator was crossed in 29° west on July 15, on the twenty-fifth day out. The south-east trades were only poor and well to the southward, which jammed the barque over into the Brazilian coast, where she had to tack. Variable winds followed. The meridian of the Cape of Good Hope was crossed on the fifty-sixth day out, in 45° south. The Adam W. Spies ran the easting down on the parallels of 40° and 41° south, and experienced light westerly winds. Came south about of Tasmania, that island being rounded on the 15th instant. Easterly winds prevailed to making the coast off Jervis Bay on Friday last. The barque was towed in by the Glenelg, and anchored as stated. Captain Field, when off Jervis Bay on Friday, states that he experienced a very heavy squall off the land. The squall was seen before it struck the vessel, and Captain Field consequently was able to furl and stow all canvas but the lower topsails, which were kept on the ship. The squall was of a very short duration, but a very terrific one—in fact, Captain Field says he does not remember having experienced such a squall and of so short a duration before.

The steamer Burrambeet left Melbourne at 5.15 p.m. on the 22nd instant, and arrived in port at 2.45 p.m. on the 24th instant. Experienced light variable winds and fine weather to the Promontory, thence to Gabo Island light N.E. wind, with a dense fog, and to arrival variable and showery weather.

Still further news about the Great Eastern.—The European Mail of August 17 states that nearly the whole of the machinery and ironwork has been removed from the Great Eastern, and in a few days she will be towed round to Barrow from the Clyde and broken up. It is a pity that she could not be secured and towed inland into some river or arm of the sea and there fitted as a hospital or home of rest for disabled seamen, as her iron walls are still in excellent condition. There is indeed room for some wealthy philanthropist to come forward and save the old ship, which has done some good in her day, as but for her aid we might not yet have had an Atlantic telegraph cable. Four or five thousand pounds at most would secure her hull, and a thousand or two more convert her into a comfortable floating habitation of some sort.

The P. and O. Company's R.M.S. Massilia, hence to London via ports, arrived at Suez on the morning of the 22nd instant.

The Peninsular and Oriental S. N. Company's steamer Ballaarat, inward bound from London via ports, left Suez on the morning of the 21st instant.

News has been received in Noumea that the French frigate Thetis is being fitted out as quickly as possible at Toulon, where she will receive her guns. The Thetis will be an addition to the French fleet in these waters. Her immediate work will be the defence of the port of Noumea. The Thetis will come out under sail.

A ship passed Moruya Heads at 6 a.m., and two other ships passed the same port at 6.30 p.m., all bound north.

Two ships passed Green Cape yesterday, bound to the northward.

The steamer Clitus, bound from Melbourne to Calcutta with ores, passed Gabo Island at 9.35 a.m. yesterday.

The M. M. Company's steamer Tanais experienced some very heavy weather on her last trip to Noumea; during the height of the gale the engines had to be slowed down.

H.M.S. Swinger left Cooktown yesterday for New Guinea.

The steamer Changsha arrived at Brisbane yesterday from Sydney. She is bound to Hongkong via ports.

The steamer Hankow, hence to London, via ports, passed Gabo Island yesterday, at 1.15 p.m.

The Orient Company's R.M.S. Oroya, hence to London, via ports, arrived at Melbourne yesterday.

Yesterday the P. and O. Company's R.M.S. Carthage, hence to London, via the usual ports of call, left Adelaide at 4.15 p.m. for Albany.

The three-masted schooner Farvel has been chartered by Mr. J. Williams. She will shortly proceed to the South Sea Islands.

The following passengers arrived from Hongkong on Sunday in the China Navigation Company's steamer Chingtu:—Mrs. D'Arcy Urr and daughter, Mrs. Baxter, Messrs. Baxter, Tange, Prell, Thomas, Moss, Alberts, Henderson, Beetson, and 19 in the other classes.

The R.M.S. Merkara arrived at Brisbane yesterday from London, via Queensland ports.

The French men-of-war Fabert and Dives were at Noumea when the Tanais left.

Our Kaipara correspondent, says N. Z. Herald, writes as follows under date of 17th September:—While not a single vessel has loaded in the Wairoa for Australian ports since negotiations were completed for the purchase of the mills by the Kauri Company, no less than four vessels are loading in the Greenville River for Australia, namely, the barque Presto and brigantine Stanley with sawn timber and flitches, the barque Cabarfeidh with balk timber, and the barque Wenona, at the mouth of the Kaukapakapa Creek, with balk and flitches. The barquentine Waitemata is also loading for Sydney with sawn timber and flitches from Messrs. Chadwick and Byrnes' mill at Pahi.

CASUALTIES.

A young man named Walter Richards, while bottling some sodawater at Parrott's cordial factory yesterday, had the misfortune to have the palm of his left hand severely cut by a broken bottle. The principal artery was severed, and consequently a good deal of hemorrhage ensued before the wound could be staunched. He attended at the Sydney Hospital, where his injury was dressed by Dr. Hughes.

A patient of the Moorcliff Eye Hospital, named Alexander Campbell, 78 years of age, made a determined attempt at suicide by cutting his throat yesterday evening. He had for some time past been under treatment for a disease of the eye, and is stated to have frequently brooded over the sufferings he endured as the result of his ailment. At a quarter to 6 o'clock last night he was found in the lavatory bleeding from a wound in the neck, about 3½ inches in length, which had evidently been inflicted with a penknife. Dr. Gwynne Hughes was sent for, and after having sewn up the wound he ordered the man's removal to the Sydney Hospital. The wound had a very jagged appearance, and it seemed as if several attempts had been made to effect the lacerations, which, although serious, did not extend to the windpipe. After the various bloodvessels had been secured so as to prevent further bleeding, the patient was placed in one of the wards for observation and treatment.

The man Francis Glynn, who was seriously injured on Saturday night last through being run over by a tram motor in Elizabeth-street, near St. James's-road, succumbed to his injuries at the Sydney Hospital at about half-past 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. A report of the occurrence has been sent to the City Coroner, and an inquest will probably be held to-day.

A man named E. Burgoyne, about 35 years of age, died under somewhat peculiar circumstances about 8 o'clock last night, in a house No. 338, Crown-street. It is stated that the deceased, who recently arrived from Bourke, went to the house in question on a visit, and shortly after entering he complained of feeling a choking sensation in his throat. He almost immediately became convulsed, and threw himself upon a bed, where he lay for some time. Dr. Sinclair was sent for, and on arrival pronounced life to be extinct. The deceased had been living at the Occidental Hotel in York-street for about a fortnight, and his body was identified by a porter from that establishment. The police have been informed of the occurrence.

THE NORTH SHORE TRAM-LINE.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD.

Sir,—An instance of mismanagement in connection with this line, as referred to in a letter to-day, is as follows:—The N. S. Ferry Company had recently to increase the number of boats running to Milson's Point between 5 and 6.30 p.m., by running boats every 10 minutes—running 9 boats instead of 6. The tramway authorities to meet the change run the trams every 10 minutes, but run one car instead of two, as formerly. That is to say, to meet increased traffic they have reduced the cars from 12 to 9. Hence the crowding complained of. The 12 cars were nearly always full, and often crowded, and how can the traffic be carried by 9.

THE WEATHER.

Yesterday was a very unsettled and changeable day. At one time it was fine, at another it was cloudy, and at another rain fell. Heavy watery clouds were hanging about the whole day until the wind dropped, and then they disappeared altogether. Rain was reported from a number of country places, and in the majority of townships the rainfall was very considerable. Indeed in some instances the rivers have almost flooded the adjacent lands. The rain does not seem to have in any way stopped the shearing operations.

The country is already assuming a green appearance.

BEGA, Monday.

Since Tuesday night 269 points of rain have been recorded. The weather is still threatening.

BOURKE, Monday.

The following reports show that rain has been general, though light, over the Western district:—Barringun, 18 points; Enngonia, 110; Brewarrina, 45; Mungundi, 6; Gongolgon, 60; Cunnamulla, 2; Wanaaring, 25; Byerock, 54; Louth, 38; and Bourke, 56 points.

BOWRAL, Monday.

Ninety-four points of rain fell last week. A hailstorm visited the town this afternoon. Splendid showers fell for about two hours, and there is every appearance of more rain.

BURROWA, Monday.

A terrific storm of thunder, lightning, and heavy rain visited here on Saturday night. Showers also occurred at frequent intervals yesterday. There is every appearance of it continuing. The crops and pastures are beginning to look promising.

CANDELO, Monday.

The weather last Tuesday, after being intensely hot and sultry, became more like the weather of a tropical climate. Towards sunset the clouds gathered very heavily, and about 10 o'clock a heavy shower fell, the rain continuing at intervals during the night. On Wednesday afternoon a fine, warm, penetrating rain fell, and continued through most of Thursday. Saturday was intensely hot until about 6.30 p.m., when a very heavy storm of rain, accompanied by thunder and lightning, broke over the district. 56 points of rain fell in about 15 minutes. It rained at intervals through the night, and heavy showers fell on Sunday. To-day has been dull and threatening. The record for this month shows 359 points.

CANOWINDRA, Monday.

The district has been visited by steady rain since Saturday night, and over an inch has fallen. The weather at present is unsettled.

CARCOAR, Monday.

Rain has fallen here at intervals since Saturday morning. There is every appearance of a continuance. Over 125 points have been registered.

COBAR, Monday.

A heavy thunderstorm, accompanied by rain and hail, passed over the town on Saturday evening. Over an inch of rain fell. The hailstones were of great size, and windows were demolished by them in their fall. The rainfall appears to have been general, its value to the district cannot be overestimated. Heavy clouds betoken a further downpour.

COONAMBLE, Monday.

Nice showers fell here on Saturday. The weather is still broken.

COONABARABRAN, Monday.

Sixty-eight points of rain fell yesterday. Appearances promise more.

COWRA, Monday.

Rain set in on Saturday morning, and still continues. Only 97 points have fallen.

CROOKWELL, Monday.

Rain commenced on Saturday evening, and continued until yesterday morning. In the evening light showers again fell. To-day the creeks are running, and the dams are rapidly filling. There is every appearance of a continuance of rain.

DUBBO, Monday.

Rain set in on Saturday night, and registered 35 points. A few good showers have since fallen, making the total for the whole about an inch. More rain is greatly wanted.

FORBES, Monday.

On Saturday night fine steady rain set in, which lasted till early on Sunday morning; 80 points were registered. Again last night there was another downpour, and 87 points were registered. It is still raining, with every probability of a continuance.

GILGANDRA, Monday.

Steady rain fell here for five hours yesterday totalling 75 points. It is still threatening.

GOULBURN, Monday.

The weather has completely broken. On Saturday evening a heavy thunderstorm burst over the city, and rain fell in torrents. Last evening heavy rain again fell. To-day there has been some nice showers. Up to 8 o'clock this morning 1in. 24 points had fallen.

GRENFELL, Monday.

Seventy-nine points of rain fell since Saturday. Rain is still falling.

GULGONG, Monday.

Showers have fallen at intervals since Saturday night, and 75 points of rain have been registered. Rain has been heavier to the northward. At Mr. E. M. Bowman's Merotherie station over an inch of rain fell yesterday morning.

GUNDAGAI, Monday.

The drought has broken up. During Thursday, Friday, and Saturday light showers fell. Yesterday afternoon a couple of severe thunderstorms passed over, one of which lasted 20 minutes. The weather is still showery. Since Saturday morning the gauge has registered 2¼in. The Murrumbidgee River at Gundagai is rising.

GUNNEDAH, Monday.

Yesterday 70 points of rain fell. The weather is still threatening. The total rainfall for the past four weeks is 1½in.

GUNNING, Monday.

A heavy thunderstorm passed over here on Saturday night. Rain has continued at intervals ever since. The total fall amounts to 1¼in.

HILLSTON, Monday.

Twenty points of rain fell last night, making 60 points for the past week. The weather is still showery.

INVERELL, Monday.

Thirty-eight points of rain fell yesterday. The fall was general throughout the district.

JUNEE, Monday.

Eighty-seven points of rain have fallen since Friday. There is every prospect of a further downfall. At Junee Reefs 2in. fell.

KANGAROO VALLEY, Monday.

The drought has now completely broken up. On Saturday night there was a thunderstorm, and another to-day, both storms being accompanied by heavy showers.

KIAMA, Monday.

To-day a thunderstorm burst over this town and district, attended by a downpour of rain such as has not been witnessed here for more than 20 years. Three inches 17 points were registered in about one hour. The rain at Kiama seems to have been heavier than it was a few miles south. Several houses in the low situations were flooded, and the streets in places were impassable.

LISMORE, Monday.

A heavy thunderstorm passed over here last night.

MOREE, Monday.

Beneficial rain fell from Saturday night to midday on Sunday. Nearly an inch was registered.

MORUYA, Monday.

A severe thunderstorm passed over this town on Saturday night. The lightning was very vivid, and balls of fire appeared in the air. The Centennial Hall was struck by lightning. One of the doors was splintered, and five lamps were extinguished. Mr. Harvison's prize blood mare Needle, was struck and killed.

MURRURUNDI, Monday.

There was a heavy fall of rain on Sunday. It lasted for 16 hours; 207 points were registered. The rain will do incalculable good to the graziers, but it comes too late for the crops.

MURRUMBURRAH, Monday.

A heavy thunderstorm passed over here on Saturday afternoon; it lasted for an hour. Rain has been steadily falling in showers at intervals ever since, with every appearance of a continuance. 109 points have been registered up to this evening. This rain has been the salvation of our district.

NARRABRI, Monday.

A nice rain set in here on Saturday night, and 35 points fell.

NYMAGEE, Monday.

On Saturday evening 64 points of rain fell. The weather is still unsettled.

PARKES, Monday.

Splendid rains have fallen since Saturday, with heavy showers to-day. 158 points in all have been registered. Showers are still falling in the district. A good supply of water is now in the company's dam.

PATERSON, Monday.

A thunderstorm occurred yesterday, accompanied by a fall of rain.

PICTON, Monday.

Storms, with more or less rain, have passed over the district daily since Tuesday. Upwards of 1in. of rain has fallen.

SCONE, Monday.

Splendid showers fell yesterday, and 125 points were registered.

WOLLONGONG, Monday.

There was splendid rain last night.

YASS, Monday.

Over 200 points of rain have fallen since Saturday night.

YOUNG, Monday.

Rain commenced on Saturday night, and heavy showers fell up to 9 o'clock this morning. 78 points were registered.

PICNICS.

RAILWAY TRAFFIC EMPLOYEES.

Yesterday, at Sir Joseph Banks Grounds, Botany, the Railway Traffic Branch employees held their annual picnic in celebration of the 33rd anniversary of the opening of the New South Wales railways. The weather was fine, and the attendance was large, about 3000 persons making the journey to the prettily-situated grounds, where Mr. Frank Smith had made ample provision for the reception and enjoyment of the holiday-keepers. An excellent sports' programme was gone through during the day, and in addition to this there were dancing and roller-skating for those who engage in these pastimes. The Imperial Brass Band was in attendance, and rendered an enjoyable selection of airs. The arrangements for the outing, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all present, were entrusted to the following gentlemen:—General Committee: Mr. R. White (chairman), M. Reynolds (secretary), Mr. R. Purvis (treasurer), Mr. G. Hawk (vice-chairman), Messrs. W. Walker, J. Marvin, W. Hartley, J. Rigney, D. Brown, Peter Keane, J. Robson, J. Kingston, J. Giles, E. Faucett, J. Cavanough, H. Moore, G. Gawn, J. Dwyer, J. M'Neill, J. Seage, and A. Johnston. Sports Committee:—Secretary: Mr. John Kingston. Judge: Mr. W. Walker. Starter: Mr. G. Hawk. Referee: Mr. Peter Keane. Master of the Track: Mr. D. Brown. Messrs. J. Robson and T. Dwyer to supervise children's races. M.C.'s for Dancing: Messrs. J. M'Neill and Harry Moore. Shortly after 1 o'clock the officers and a number of others sat down to an excellent luncheon. The chair was occupied by Mr. R. White, with Mr. G. Hawk as vice-chairman. Amongst those present were—Mr. C. A. Goodchap (Commissioner for Railways), Messrs. W. F. Schey and W. Fraser Martin, Ms.L.A., W. V. Read (traffic manager), J. Harper (goods superintendent), H. Richardson (coaching superintendent), Quong Tart, R. Purvis, M. Reynolds, W. H. Colquhoun, W. S. Brown, R. Darby, and Mr. James, representing the Victorian railway employees.

The Chairman announced that apologies for non-attendance had been received from the Hon. John Sutherland, the Minister for Works, who was unable to be present owing to the pressure of public business; Hon. F. Abigail, Mr. J. Garrard, M.L.A., and Mr. Vernon. The loyal toasts having been honoured,

Mr. G. Hawk proposed "The Parliament and Government of New South Wales." In the course of his remarks he referred to the passing of the Railway Management Bill, and said the railway men had not much to find fault with in that measure if they excepted the fact that their esteemed Commissioner, Mr. Goodchap, was not appointed chairman of the Board. He thought Mr. Goodchap would have been able to do as well as Mr. Eddy. They were sorry that he had not seen fit to take the secondposition. (Hear, hear.) The speaker also alluded to Mr. Sutherland as being the greatest friend the railway men had. (Applause.) He thought that the Ministry as a whole had done their best to place the country in a good position.

Mr. W. Fraser Martin, in reply, said the Ministry were to blame for having proposed to do too much during the late session of Parliament. Doubtless the Opposition were to blame as well. The Parliament was not so good as he would like to see it, and he was afraid, from the way in which things were going on, decent men—he meant decent working men, for he was a working man himself—would not stand for Parliament. It was no pleasure and no honour to belong to the House at the present time. He hoped the people would not be led away by any party or other cries that might be raised. Let them do their best to get good, honest, and straightforward men into the House. (Applause.)

Mr. W. F. Schey also responded.

Mr. Peter Keane next submitted "The Commissioner and Officers of the Railway Department," the toast being received with great enthusiasm.

Mr. Goodchap, who was greeted with loud cheers, said he thanked them very heartily for the manner in which they had received this toast. It was most gratifying to find that they had so good an opinion of him. It had been a matter of regret to him that on several occasions he had been unable to attend their annual celebrations, but he could not allow this, the last one under his administration, to pass without being present. (Hear, hear.) He knew how very much the chief administrator of a large railway system must be dependent on the character, honesty, and integrity of the staff over which he presided, and he could bear his sincere testimony to the fact that in New South Wales they possessed in an eminent degree a staff of that description. For carefulness and for integrity he did not think the railway staff of New South Wales could be surpassed by any other in the world. He had been looking at a few statistics before leaving town, and he found that on the railways of Great Britain for every £100 they received as revenue they paid away 18s. as compensation for personal injuries and loss of goods; but on the New South Wales railways, in no period of their career had they ever paid more than 4s. (Cheers.) This statement meant that the railway staff of the colony was actuated by great care, by great attention to duty, by a sense of responsibility, and by the highest integrity. (Hear, hear.) They would also admit that in the performance of their duties all grades of the railway staff had to endure considerable hardships. They had a railway upon which a large amount of business was done. They had almost, with immaterial exception, single lines to run upon. They had to conduct a traffic in which fast express, mail, passenger, goods, and other trains had to be attended to. All these trains were running over the lines, some stopping, and others rushing through stations at considerable speed, all carrying out the one function set down for them, and doing it, he was pleased to say, with a degree of punctuality and care which was an example to many railways in other parts of the world. (Applause.) The conditions for success in a railway were to have a good permanent way and powerful engines of the best class. The department possessed some excellent locomotives. They had a variety of rolling-stock equal to all requirements, an excellent method of working the trains by the staff and ticket system, and, for double lines, the block system; and they possessed one of the best continuous brakes in the world. With regard to the new administration, he would like to say that, although he felt some natural disappointment when he was not selected by the Government to assume a leading position, he could put all that aside and give to the gentleman who was coming out from the old country all the assistance he possibly could, and he knew the railway employees would give Mr. Eddy that ready help and sympathy which they had accorded to him (Mr. Goodchap). (Hear, hear.) Under such circumstances his administration could not fail to be successful, and no one in the colony would be more gratified to see it a success than he, because his interest in the Railway Department and in the welfare of this country was superior to any personal consideration. In conclusion, he said no commissioner having administrative power was ever better seconded in his efforts than he had been by the officers and men of the department, and he took this opportunity of thanking all the railway staff for the hearty co-operation they had always afforded him. (Applause.)

Mr. W. V. Read also replied.

The toast of "The Day We Celebrate" was then proposed by Mr. H. Richardson.

Mr. R. White, in reply, quoted statistics having reference to the number of accidents which occurred on the railways of New South Wales and the American lines as follows:—Accidents in New South Wales in 1887: Passengers carried, 14,500,000; trains run, 154,000; mileage run, 6,500,000. Accidents, passengers, 10 killed, 90 injured; Peat's Ferry, 5 killed and 73 injured. Servants killed, 16; injured, 17. Railway accidents in America, 1887: Number, 1491; collisions, 699; caused by (1) malicious persons, 2; (2) failure of brakes, 7; (3) mistakes in giving or understanding orders, 42; (4) misplacing of points, 44; (5) failure to give or observe signals, 53; (6) train breaking in two, 55; (7) miscellaneous causes, 78; (8) unexplained causes, 419. Employees' killed, 406; passengers, 207; others, 43; total, 656. Increase of mileage, 10 per cent.; increase of casualties, 40 per cent.

Several other toasts were honoured.

The following are the results of the races:—

Railway Sheffield Handicap.—E. Stewart, 1; W. M'Carthy, 2; G. Stephens, 3; E. Huxley, 4.
Old Buffers' Race.—G. Crossman, 1; J. Dingwell, 2.
Porters' Race.—F. Bell, 1; T. Coward, 2.
Guards' and Assistant Guards' Race.—G. Edwards, 1; J. Rutter, 2.
Shunters' and Signalmen's Race.—P. Meehan, 1; C. Bridgement, 2.
Hurdle Race.—G. Bootle, 1; J. Kinnane, 2.
Committee Race.—M. Reynolds, 1; P. Keane, 2; G. Hawk, 3; —Walker, 4.

RAILWAY EMPLOYEES' ASSOCIATION AT BATHURST.

BATHURST, Monday.

The annual picnic in connection with the Permanent Railway Employees' Association was held on the Cricket Ground to-day. Rain fell in torrents; but, notwithstanding this, between 700 and 800 persons were present. A good programme of sports was provided, but several events fell through. The following contests were decided:—

Boys' Race, 100 yards.—Hemsworth, 1; Cameron, 2.
One Mile and a Half Walking Match.—T. Warson, 20 yards, 1; L. M'Clellan, scratch, 2; J. Morris, scratch, 3.
Fifty Yards Girls' Race.—A. M. Hutchins, 1; Mary Kassick, 2, Lily Watson, 3.
Old Buffers' Race, 60 yards.—Ferguson 1; Drew, 2.
Fettlers' Walking Match, 3 miles competitors to carry spanners.—Burns, 1; Mayne, 2; Langford, 3.
One Hundred and Fifty Yards Flat Race, open to all railway employees; run in divisions.—Condon, 12 yards, 1; Cromby, scratch, 2; Johnson, 6 yards, 3.
Hop, Step, and Jump.—Won by Hartigan, who covered 37ft. 10½in.
Two Miles Go-as-you-please.—Cleft, 1; Rivers, 2; Serrell, 3.
Fifty Yards Flat Race, for employees' wives.—Mrs. Peters, 1; Mrs. Cogan, 2.

During the day an amateur bicycle match was contested between Ballinger and M'Lennan. The distances were a quarter of a mile and a mile. Ballinger won by a few inches at both distances.

The arrangement of the sports was in the hands of Mr. Mayberry. The annual ball was held in the evening at the Oddfellows' Hall.

GREAT NORTHERN RAILWAY EMPLOYEES.

NEWCASTLE, Monday.

The Great Northern Railway Annual Locomotive Picnic to Gosford to-day was a great success, nearly 2000 persons were present. Traffic Inspector Willis was in charge of the trains. A banquet took place at the Royal Hotel, to bid farewell to Mr. Thomas Boag, the retiring locomotive superintendent. The sports, &c., took place in a large paddock.

NOTES EXPLANATORY OF MAP.

In the list of stations, the column headed W.T. gives the state of the weather at 9 a.m., b standing for blue sky; c, detached clouds; d, drizzling rain; f, fog; g, gloomy; h, hazy; m, misty; n, frosty; o, overcast; p, passing showers; r, rain; s, snow; t, thunder; u, threatening. The next column, M'x., gives the maximum temperature for previous 24 hours. M'n. the corresponding minimum temperature; R'n. the rain for the previous 24 hours. The symbols used in the map are explained on the margin. At each station the wind symbol points to the direction in which the wind is blowing, is in fact an arrow flying with the wind. A clear circle with it means fine weather, a circle with bar, cloudy weather, and a black spot, raining. Next to this symbol are placed figures denoting the number of miles the wind is moving per hour. Next, a symbol showing the state of the sea; and, lastly, figures denoting the shade temperature at 9 a.m. The barometer curve shows the state of barometers round the coast from Perth to Cooktown:—Pt. Perth; Ay. Albany; Ea. Eucla; CB. Cape Borda; A. Adelaide; Ro. Robe; P. Portland; M. Melbourne; WP. Wilson's Promontory; Go. Gabo; E. Eden; Ma. Moruya; CG. Jervois Bay; WG. Wollongong; S. Sydney; N. Newcastle; PM. Port Macquarie; C. Clarence River; B. Brisbane; R. Rockhampton; Ct. Cooktown. Inland, the state of barometer is given in figures at Albury, Deniliquin, Wentworth, Menindie, Bourke, and Alice Springs. The barometer curve enables one at a glance to trace the depressions, beginning with Western Australia, and passing along eastwards; northerly winds preceding them, and southerly following.

The rainfall on Sundays and holidays, when the map is not published, is in all cases included in the quantities shown by the next following map.

SYNOPSIS.

Western Australia.—More or less cloudy and unsettled.

A WONDERFUL MEDICINE.

BEECHAM'S PILLS
BEECHAM'S PILLS
BEECHAM'S PILLS

are universally admitted to be worth a Guinea a Box for Bilious and Nervous Disorders, such as Wind and Pain in the Stomach, Sick Headache, Giddiness, Fulness and Swelling after Meals, Dizziness and Drowsiness, Cold Chills, Flushings of Heat, Loss of Appetite, Shortness of Breath, Costiveness, Scurvy and Blotches on the Skin, Disturbed Sleep, Frightful Dreams, and all Nervous and Trembling Sensations, &c. The first dose will give relief in twenty minutes. This is no fiction, for they have done it in countless cases.

Every sufferer is earnestly invited to try one Box of these Pills, and they will be acknowledged to be

WORTH A GUINEA A BOX
WORTH A GUINEA A BOX
WORTH A GUINEA A BOX.

For females of all ages they are invaluable. No female should be without them. There is not a medicine to be found equal to them for removing any obstruction or irregularity of the system. If taken according to the directions given with each box, they will soon restore females of all ages to sound and robust health. This has been proved by thousands who have tried them, and found the benefits which are ensured by their use.

BEECHAM'S PILLS.
BEECHAM'S PILLS.
BEECHAM'S PILLS.

For a weak stomach, impaired digestion, and all disorders of the liver, they act like magic, and a few doses will be found to work wonders on the most important organs in the human machine. They strengthen the whole muscular system, restore the long lost complexion, bring back the keen edge of appetite, and arouse into action with the rosebud of health the whole physical energy of the human frame. These are facts testified continually by members of all classes of society, and one of the best guarantees to the nervous and debilitated is, BEECHAM'S PILLS HAVE THE LARGEST SALE of any patent medicine in the world.

PASTORAL, FINANCE, TRUST, and AGENCY COMPANY of AUSTRALASIA, Limited.

Objects.—This Company has been formed for the purpose of establishing, upon an advantageous and comprehensive basis, a pastoral, agricultural, and commercial agency and finance business, having branches in all the Australasian colonies, New Zealand, and in London. The Company's operations will include the direct importation and supply of station requisites.

Special Feature.—The introduction into this class of agency business of the mutual principle, under which constituents, being shareholders and having business transactions with the Company, will participate in its profits. The system has been so long in operation and favourably applied to the policyholders of mutual life assurance companies that the attention of investors is particularly drawn to this special feature, as more particularly explained below.

Advantages.—The large dividends which the pastoral companies already established in these colonies for transacting this class of business have continuously paid must be held to indicate that large savings can be effected by those pastoralists and agriculturists who become shareholders and constituents of a company founded on the mutual principle, the application of which will necessarily, at the same time, form a guarantee to the ordinary investing shareholder for the rapid development of a large volume of business to the Company.

Debentures.—Advantage will be taken of the present favourable condition of the money market in London to issue debentures at advantageous rates, which will enable the Company to grant, on favourable terms, all usual financial facilities to its clients.

Management.—Boards will be established in all the principal colonies; and care will be taken to make available to each colony, according to its current business requirements, an equivalent proportion of the capital at the command of the company from time to time.

Shares.—The first issue of shares will, in the first instance, be reserved in the following proportions to supply applications from each colony, viz. :—New South Wales, 300,000 shares; Victoria, 300,000 shares; Queensland, 200,000 shares; South Australia, 100,000 shares; New Zealand, 50,000 shares; Tasmania, 25,000 shares; and Western Australia, 25,000; but the directors reserve the power in making allotments to have regard, in the first place, to applicants likely to become constituents, to dispose in other colonies any shares not applied for of the reservations for each colony, and also from time to time to issue, upon such terms as they may deem advisable, shares to customers. It is also intended to offer the whole or a portion of the next issue in London.

Profits.—The articles provide that the net profits, after providing for maintenance of a reasonable current balance and reserve fund, will be apportioned yearly upon the following basis:—

(a) In providing for a dividend not exceeding the rate of eight pounds per cent. per annum upon the paid-up capital.
(b) An appropriation at a rate not exceeding 2 per cent. per annum on such capital to a special fund for equalising dividends, provided always that no such appropriation shall be made whenever the said fund shall stand with the sum of one hundred thousand pounds to the credit thereof.
(c) One-half of the balance shall be distributed amongst the shareholders by way of bonus or additional dividend, and the other half shall be divided amongst the constituents of the Company being shareholders in proportion to the amount of profit accruing to the Company from their respective transactions with the Company during the preceding year.

Powers.—The Memorandum and Articles of Association will enable the Company to acquire any similar business already established, and the provisional directors have already in view the acquisition on favourable terms of three such businesses carrying first-class connections. Powers will also be taken for the Company to act as trustees, executors, and agents of estates which include pastoral and agricultural properties. The Memorandum of Association is published herewith, and the Articles of Association can be inspected at the offices of the solicitors of the Company.

Able and experienced management in each department will be secured, and all appointments will be made by the directors after the floating of the Company.

In the formation of the Company no promoters' shares will be issued. The cost of registration, law, brokerage, printing, and sundry preliminary expenses will, however, be made a first charge upon the funds of the Company.

Already a large number of influential stationholders in each colony have promised to send and to influence business to the company, and many have intimated their intention of becoming large shareholders.

Shares will be allotted, as far as practicable, according to priority of application, and as may be considered most conducive to promote the best interests of the Company.

Applications will be received by the brokers named herein for the different colonies, and the share list will close simultaneously in each place.

ABRIDGED PROSPECTUS
VICTOR AND SIR WILLIAM DON UNITED TIN-MINING COMPANY
(No Liability),
near TINGHA, NEW ENGLAND, NEW SOUTH WALES.

CAPITAL, £70,000 in 70,000 SHARES of £1 EACH, of which 40,000 Shares, paid up to 10s, are reserved by the vendors, together with £5000 in cash, in partial payment of the amount expended by them upon the property. The remaining 30,000 Shares are offered to the public on the following terms:—1s 6d on application, 2s on allotment, with five Monthly Calls of 6d per Share, if necessary, commencing one month after allotment. As the property has been developed to a considerable extent, and suitable modern machinery is on the ground, it is not expected that any further calls will be required.

From the appended reports it will be seen that large deposits of wash, rich in tin and easily obtained, are exposed to view in the numerous prospecting shafts sunk on the property, so that immediate and continuous dividends should follow on the commencement of work by the company.

The Company will be considered formed when 20,000 Shares have been applied for.

Provisional Directors:
H. H. BROWN, Esq., M.L.A. | G. H. HOLMES, Esq.
A. C. FRASER, Esq. | JOHN WHEELER, Esq., J.P.
C. A. GOODCHAP, Esq. | H. G. LOMAX, Esq.
JOHN W. ROCK, Esq.

Solicitor:
ALFRED DE LISSA, Esq., George-street, Sydney.

Brokers:
Messrs. BELL and HENDERSON, 90, King-street, Sydney.

This Company is formed for the purpose of acquiring and working for the stream tin discovered upon it, a valuable property about 4 miles from Tingha of 440 acres. Only about 6 acres has been worked, from which 150 tons of tin have been obtained. About 40 trial shafts have been sunk in different places, from 16 to 60 feet in depth, showing wash from 1 foot 6 to 4 feet thick, and carrying from 40lb. to 100lb. tin to the ton. A large dam has been constructed giving abundance of water for all purposes. Sinking is easy, and will not cost more than 12s per foot, and there is an ample supply of timber.

The machinery and plant consists of two Tangye engines and boilers, an extensive system of tramways with steel rails, trucks, puddling machines, &c. By the further expenditure of about £2000 the mine would, when fully worked, yield 300 tons of washdirt per day, giving the following results:—

300 tons per day, averaging 50lb. of tin per ton = 15,000lb., at say 8d per lb ...	£500 0 0
Less total cost of winning and treatment at 4s 6½d per ton	68 2 0
Total profit per day		£431 18 0
Or per week of 6 working days		£2591 8 0
Or per annum		£134,752 0 0

In addition to the exceptionally valuable alluvial deposits, a large lode of rich tin-bearing ore has been discovered under the property. When it is remembered that the tin in stock to supply the world is only about 7000 tons; that the sources of supply elsewhere for an increasing demand are being gradually reduced; and that the present price exceeds the average of that obtained during the last 16 years by about £20 per ton, there can be no doubt that the property offers a safe investment to capitalists, with a certainty of quick and good returns.

The tinfields of N. S. W. were first opened in 1872. Since then over £8,000,000 worth has been produced without the aid of steam or machinery of any magnitude, the appliances hitherto used being small and of a most primitive character.

REPORTS.
To the Provisional Directors.
Melbourne, 19th March, 1888.

Gentlemen,—I have inspected the Victor and Sir William Don Tin-mining property, and beg to report as follows:—

Examined the underground workings first: was down Nos. 1, 2, and 3 shafts, depths 40, 43, and 50 feet respectively, on block 581; tried prospects from different places; results about the same in each, about 40lb. to the cubic yard. The washdirt will run about 2 feet in depth, the width of the lead from 180 to 200 feet, it may run much wider when opened out further down the lead. I next examined the bottom at shafts 6 and 7 on block 553, depths 52 and 60 feet respectively. In No. 7 shaft the ground dips very much to the west. The prospects from these shafts are quite equal to the others, and give every likelihood of improvement by driving across the deep ground.

It appears to me there is a fair prospect of tracing the deep ground through the whole length of the claim, from shafts 6 and 7 to the end, passing through blocks 553, 184, 179 or 180, through a piece of ground under offer to the Company, and on to blocks 161 and 160.

Yours respectfully,
THOS. TIDY.

Sydney, 14th June, 1886.

Gentlemen,—When I visited the mine in December last, in company with A. S. Lowe, Esq., I formed a very high estimate of its value. So far as I can see, the statements as to area, title, machinery, ground opened, and quality and value of washdirt you make are strictly accurate.

The machinery is good and substantial, and has been erected with an eye to economy.

The sinkings are shallow and inexpensive. The washdirt is dry. The granite silt or floor is so thoroughly decomposed and soft that the expense of undercutting the wash can be effected at a low cost. The surroundings and conditions for economical production are more favourable here than in deep lodes I have inspected elsewhere.

On the date of our inspection washdirt was visible in the underground drives that would yield from 30 to 150 lbs. per ton.

My conviction is that, under skilled and careful management, handsome profits could be obtained from the working of the ground; and as there is evidence that the leads (of which there are several) extend over a large area, I should expect this to prove a thoroughly sound property.

Yours truly,
JAS. R. M. ROBERTSON, F.G.S., &c.

Technical College Laboratory,

Gentlemen,—The samples of tin ore marked Victor Tin Mine, Nos. 1 and 2, give an assay:—
No. 1 tin ... ... 71·2 per cent.
No. 2 tin ... ... 74·5 ditto.
I remain,
Yours truly,
WILL. A. DIXON, F.I.C., F.C.S.
